Classmates Gather Tonight

A holiday gathering of former Torrance High School classmates has been scheduled for tonight at the home of Mrs. Frank Paour III at 1321 Florwood Ave.

The evening will begin with cocktails at the Paour home, and the group will then go to the Jump 'n' Jack in Waleria for dinner. Instead of exchanging gifts as has been the practice, the women of the group have contributed funds to purchase Christmas toys for a fatherless family of three, Mrs. Paour said.

Those invited to attend the affair tonight include Sandra Grub Eads, Lynn Lorenz Mortenson, Charlene St. Martin Bezanson, Donna Hester Leech, Maureen Matthew Dandoy, Pat Eads Swigart, Linda Griffin Philip, Madaline Goerke Maddock, Sally Sprout Mallard, Pat Hansen Dominguez, Bette Sue Higgins Smith, Helene Gavin Babbitt, Sylvia Martinez Rushfeldt, Jeri Moon, Barbara Hazzard Parker, Norma Mead Farrar, Sandra Sanders Johnson, and the hostess, Joan Leech Paour.

Redondo Chamber Sets Dianas Service Award

A service award in recognition will be presented to the Dianas today at the monthly luncheon meeting of the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce. The award will honor the women's service club for its successful clothing drive for Redondo's sister city of LaPaz, Mexico. Mrs. Roger Gardemann, president of Dianas, will accept the award from Chamber President John P. Burch. Standing with her will be Mrs. Paul Mitchell, international affairs chairman for the club and chairman of the LaPaz drive.

Other members planning to attend today's luncheon meeting include Mmes. Anthony Credico, Eldon Pratt, James Mitchell, Martin Galos, and Sheldon Goldenson.

Dianas Hold Party at Las Palmas for Girls

Stockings stuffed with personal gifts were among the items the Redondo Beach Dianas took to the Las Palmas School for emotionally disturbed girls for the Christmas party Wednesday. One of the items in the stocking was hand decorated soap, decorated by Mrs. Arthur Callen, crafts chairman. Assisting Mrs. Callen were Mmes. Chris Saunders, Jules Rensen, James Newkirk, and Thomas Mitchell. These soaps also will be given to needy families. The Dianas maintain a "Cottage Shelf" for the girls which is filled with craft and snack items. The crafts, such as mosaics, oil painting, felt, and glitter, are used by the girls to make presents. Snack items such as pop corn, canned pop, and cake mixes are just a few of the little extras the girls can fix for themselves and enjoy. Pictures of each girl were taken by Robert Carrington and each will receive two copies so they may have a gift for their parents. Mrs. Eldon Pratt, philanthropy chairman, served refreshments.

Chi Omega Alumnae Holds Holiday Party

Champagne punch and cookies was served at the Christmas party of the South Bay Chi Omega alumnae Tuesday evening. Mrs. William V. Schneider, Hermosa Beach, presided as hostess Tuesday for the annual event. Assisting her were Mrs. James A. Lutz of Hollywood Riviera. A traditional gift exchange will highlight the evening's activities. Invitations were sent to Mmes. Sam Stewart, Hermosa Beach; Ray Griff, James Lutz, Arthur Montgomery and Robert Moore of Hollywood Riviera; Ray Anderson, Frederick Farrell, J. S. McGhee and Cecil Robinson, Manhattan Beach. Also included were Mmes. D. W. John, Gayle McGough, John Nelson and Jerry Terry, Palos Verdes Estates; Louis Campbell, Thomas Huff, Robert Shoe, and Norwood Teague, Portuguese Bend; Roger Wolcott, Redondo Beach; P.J. Baddeley, Harold Blake, Mitchell Dion, W. J. Hesnault Jr., W. K. Thames and Arthur Wannlund, Rolling Hills; Phillip Barretta of San Pedro; Gerald Farrens, Richard Gazeley, Roland Hecher, and John Melville, Torrance.

Eastern Star Plans Gifts For Children

Torrance Chapter 380 of Eastern Star will hold an annual Christmas party Thursday, 8 p.m. at the Torrance Masonic Temple. Worthy Matron Freda Shaffer urges all members to remember to bring their wrapped and tagged boy or girl Christmas gift.
