Others were Mrs. Penny Bolen, Mrs. Paul Loranger, and Miss Alicia Loranger.

Bridge Club ... Ann Landers

Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass was hostess to her bridge club at its annual Christmas party at her home, 1614 Beech Ave.

The rumpus room, where the party was held, was festively decorated with a miniature Christmas tree, poinsettias and Christmas ornaments.

A pot luck luncheon was enjoyed followed by a gift exchange.

The afternoon was spent playing bridge. Mrs. Ruth Richards held high score, Mrs. William Dekin, second, and Mrs. Marie Beale, third.

Other guests were Mmes. Lillian Dunhouse, Sybil Moffitt, Mildred McMillan and Alma Smith.

Guild to Meet

Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet at the Guild Hall, Marcellina and Arlington, on Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Katherine Lane, president, will conduct a business meeting. Mrs. Ruby Smith will be hostess.

Monthly meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will be held Jan. 8 at 11 a.m. in the Community Room of the American Savings and Loan Assn., South Bay Center.

Rabbi Leonard A. Helman of Temple Beth-El in San Pedro will be the guest speaker. His topic is "Vocational Education of Youth in Israel."

Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. Robert Hann and Mrs. Rae Frome.

Home From College

Spending the holidays here with their parents are three students from California Western in San Diego, Miss Ginny Krauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Krauser; Miss Sharon Ricci, daughter of the John Riccis, and Miss Susan Hammack, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hammack.

Torrance YWCA Begins Winter Classes Jan. 2

Torrance YWCA will start its winter session class activities for all ages the week of Jan. 7.

On the agenda are a Slim Trim class, offered in the evening especially for the business girl; a social dance class on Thursday evening; Y-Wives group on Tuesday, giving housewives an opportunity for exercise followed by a program; and a knitting class.

For girls, 5 to 11 years, the YWCA offers a full day of supervised fun and classes every Saturday from 10 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. These classes include art, baton, drama, and interpretive dances.

For girls, 12 and 13 years, there are special charm classes to help her with her "growing up" problems. There are sessions in poise, social graces, figure control, hair, make-up techniques, and discussions on "getting along with adults."

... Initiation

Grand regents representing their various courts included Mmes. Richard Wurn, Our Lady of Victory; Dena Kmeciak, Our Lady of Providence; Ila Sowens, Joan of Arc; Mary Roy, San Fernando Mission.

Sending congratulations, but unable to attend, were Mrs. Fred Wettstein, state regent; Mrs. Paul Haberstroh, vice state regent; Rev. Matthew Sullivan, state chaplain, and Msgr. Patrick J. McGuinness, past chaplain of Ct. St. Catherine.

Serving at the tea table were Mrs. Klaesges, Mrs. Muzik and Mrs. Richard Ban, past grand regent and district deputy.

Mrs. Laurence Derouin, extension chairman, was responsible for application of new members.

General chairman of the reception was Mrs. George Raush, assisted by Mmes. John McVey, Noel Hayward, Regina Cunningham, Margaret Pope, Robert Wellen, James Carlin, William Hardesty, James Catena, Leonard Young, Elles Cook, Ralph Sullivan and Lloyd Landerville.

The same committee served at the November business meeting at which time an election was held to fill the two vacant offices. Mrs. Rudolph Peters was elected treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Aguilar was chosen to serve as three-year trustee.

The next business meeting will be held this evening at the Parish Annex. Rev. Appling will speak to the members on the Mexican missions and show interesting slides. All Catholic Daughters are urged to attend.

Democratic Women Elect New Officers

Newly-elected officers of the Women's Democratic Society of South Bay assumed their offices at a combination business meeting and Christmas party Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. G. Holcomb, 1906 W. 222nd St., Torrance. Mrs. Russell S. Chace, president, of Redondo Beach, presided.

Mrs. Chace takes over the reins of office from Mrs. Edmond Armstrong, who organized the society in 1960 and served as its president the first two years. Aside from things political, Mrs. Chace is interested in music and oil painting. She is a member of the choir at St. James Catholic Church, directs a children's choir, and is music chairman for the South Bay PTA Council. Mr. and Mrs. Chace have a daughter, Cynthia, nine.

The other new officers are Torrance residents: Mmes. F. G. Holcomb, vice president; Carl Axthelm, treasurer; Joseph Platt, recording secretary; Lyle J. O'Hara, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Rene Dean, who has been appointed membership chairman, will be hostess to the group at their meeting Thursday, Jan. 17, at 10 a.m., at her home, 1443 Post Ave., Torrance. Democratic women interested in discussions of legislative and other subjects are welcome to join.

Miss Catherine Fischer of Salt Lake City is a houseguest of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fischer, 1318 Beech Ave. Miss Fischer came for Christmas and will spend a month here.

Mrs. Fischer's mother, Mrs. Fred Stanchfield of Salt Lake will arrive Saturday for a several weeks visit here. She is coming especially to attend a birthday celebration honoring Mr. Fischer.

FOOD GIANT

"I buy the best meat here!"

Food Giant meat has been on my shopping list since the first day the market opened in Westminster. With seven in our family to shop for, I am in Food Giant practically every day, and I always find the meat here to be of excellent quality. I can't think of a better value for my food dollars than the fabulous meats that I buy at Food Giant!
