

Student Body President Wins El Camino Honors

Joe Paliani, fall semester president of the Associated Students of El Camino College, received the Forrest G. Murdock Award at the semi-annual Student-Service Awards Banquet held at the college Friday night.

Named for the first president of El Camino College, the Murdock Award is presented each semester on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to the college. Joe Paliani was the twelfth ECC student to receive the award.

RON HAGEN, fall semester editor of the Warhoop, presented the college the Journalism All-American Award of the Associated Collegiate Press, which the newspaper won for the 18th consecutive semester.

Forensic awards were presented by speech instructor Harold Borden to speech students Ramon Diez, Mike Hohn and Lynne Evans.

Music instructor Ralph Mills awarded Pete Fraley, trumpet player, the Warrior Band Outstanding Musician Award.

CORONA DEL Camino president, Rickie Fraboni, outlined the activities of the honor group for students who have made outstanding contributions to student activities on campus and awarded membership to Joe Paliani and Pat Day.

Special service awards were made by the Associated Students to members of the college staff and Student Government Awards were presented to members of the Student Council.

Hamilton Maddaford, assistant director of student personnel, read the "Charge to Student Officers" for the spring semester and Merl Sloan, director of student personnel, read the "Administration of Oath."

OFFICERS WHO will serve for the spring semester are Jerry Goddard, associated student president; Don Cowles, associated student vice president; James Riede, commissioner of activities; Marty Greisiger, commissioner of athletics; Ron Johnson, commissioner of health, education and welfare; Kathy Schwent, commissioner of publications; Jay Mirrieles, commissioner of public relations, and Skip Cuevas, commissioners of rallies.

Associated men's officers for the new semester are Jerry Mallicoat, president; Larry Collins, vice president; Tom Anderson, recording secretary, and Ronald Ivy, treasurer.

ary, and Dick Kazan, treasurer.

Jim McFaden will serve as chief justice of the student court. Dixie Henry is the student council secretary.

To Guest at PWP

Robert Fritz, attorney, will discuss the legal and financial problems of the single parent at the Feb. 8 meeting of the Inglewood-South Bay chapter of Parents Without Partners at the Hawthorne Recreation Center, 136 Grevillea Ave. The meeting is open to all interested persons.
