

Diamond Sign-Ups Now Open

Registration for North Torrance Babe Ruth League will be held on Saturday and Feb. 9 from 8:30 to 3:30 p.m., at McMaster Park.

Boys 13 to 15 years of age are eligible and must be accompanied by a birth certificate and a parent.

Additional information may be obtained by calling John O'Connell at FA 0-2761.

Bob Wilkins will head the league as president with Clyde Patterson, Cubs; Merle Lebs, Redlegs; Nick Olguia, Dodgers; Dave McCormick, Braves; Del Neubauer, Cards, and Bob Betts, Giants, managing the teams.

Increased participation would expand the league to eight teams. Games are played at Guenser Park on Gramercy Avenue at 177th Street.

Tordondo

Tordondo Little League registration will be held on Feb. 9 and 16 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the league's field at 5417 Halison St. in Torrance.

Boys must be eight years old by July 31, 1963 and not over 12 years old by July 31, 1963. A parent and proof of age are necessary for boys to register.

All boys must register, including last year's participants. There is no fee required for boys to play. Parents may join the league for a membership fee of $1.

Question of boundaries may be answered by calling Fred Jackman, league president, at FR 1-4212 or Player Agent Marion Heath at FR 4-4575.

A membership meeting will be held on Tuesday at Carl Steele School, beginning at 8 p.m.

Pacific American

Monday at 7:30 p.m., the Pacific American Babe Ruth League will hold a general meeting at the Newton Street School.

Parents, as well as boys ages 13, 14, and 15, interested in playing regulation baseball on a standard diamond are urged to attend. The league's boundaries engulf the southern sections of Torrance and Redondo Beach.

Torrance Horseriders Earn Eleventh Victory of Season

Power-hitting Torrance chalked up its eleventh baseball win of the season on Sunday with an 18-9 victory over Temple City.

For six innings, it was a close contest with the count knotted at 9-9, but the Bullets exploded for 13 hits and nine runs to cinch the win. The Bullets wound up with 22 hits while Temple City connected for 12 safeties.

LEADING the Torrance nine in the hitting department were John Treece, Bob Wallace, Mike Brooks, and Dick Webster with three hits apiece.

In the final three frames, Treece homered with two men on base, George Carr tripled with the bases loaded and Jack Crist, John Marsden and Wallace slapped doubles.

JIM JENSEN, Webster and Wallace shared mound duties for Torrance.

On Sunday, Feb. 10, Torrance will engage the Compton Pirates. The Pirates are finalists in the Los Angeles County Tournament following an 8-4 victory over La Puente.

Aeronca In Recreation Win

Bill Clark's 14 points paced Aeronca to a tight 38-37 victory over Harvey Aluminum in Thursday League basketball action last week.

Charles Tomblin took high-point honors for the losers with a 15-digit effort.

Five Party House cagers hit in double figures to pace an 88-28 rout of McCulloch Motors. Richard Ruffell (19), Howard Buettgenback (14), Dave Corman (12), Mike Andrews (12), and Jim Mannix (10) led Party House.

WITHSTANDING a late Airesearch splurge, Murphy's captured a 62-55 victory. Sam Edward with 17 points, Mike Kirkpatrick with 11 markers, and managers Dave Murphy with 10 digits, led the winners. For the losers, John Jacobelli canned 17 and Mike Novikoff added 16.

THREE Tuesday League contests were one-sided.

Bryant's took a 76-48 win from Thunderburger. Warren Peterson canned 21 markers, Tom Reddin and Dave Brown added 12 points each, and John Barber and Rex Hughes contributed 11 digits apiece for the winners.

BILL REINERT canned 18 markers to guide Thunderburger.

Terry Taylor (15), Eddie Perales (14), and Jim Ellsworth (13), led the Torrance First Baptist Church to a 59-27 win over the Shell Jets. Dean Starkey canned 15 points for the Jets.

Fred Peterson slipped in 12 points and Tom Cykon contributed 19 more markers as the West High Archers earned a 49-31 victory over Big Nine. Joe Miller's 10 digits was tops for the losers.

Schnepf Attends Baseball Seminar

John Schnepf, 20557 Osage Ave., Torrance, will attend a Little League baseball seminar in Williamsport, Penn., in February.

Schnepf, who has been active in Little League for nine years, was recently elected to a three-year term as district administrator for District 27. He will attend the conference from Feb. 4 to 8.

LITTLE LEAGUES from Torrance, Lomita, and Harbor City will be represented by Schnepf who served one year of an unexpired term as district administrator last year.

Prior to becoming an administrator in Little League, Schnepf was a founding member of the Pacific American Babe Ruth League, West Torrance Pony League, Tordena Colt League, Tri-Park Little League, Fre-Way Little League, and the Torrance Youth Baseball Council.

DURING THE nine years, he has served as president of the Torrance American Little League and West Torrance Pony League, treasurer of the Torrance Youth Baseball Council as well as player agent, manager, coach, secretary-treasurer, umpire, and chairman of many fund-raising activities.

Schnepf, now serving on the Youth Baseball Committee for Torrance Mayor Albert Isen, has four children, John Jr., 15; Tony, 12; Marsha, 10, and David, 6. His wife is Martha.
