When you go to The Pen & Quill in Manhattan Beach, you'll want a good appetite to accompany you. Not only a tempting selection of continental and seafood dinners await your choice, but top-quality sirloins and other meat specialties adorn the menu.

The Pen & Quill, reports Robert Reuben, is in the midst of the best year in its 10-year history, thanks to a burst of business since the opening of The Pen & Quill Hotel early this year.

That the prime rib of beef is the most acclaimed entree in the restaurant is attested by the service of some 700 orders each week. The roast beef dinner is thickly carved, meltingly tender and juicy, and served with Viking salad, creamed horseradish, and baked potato.

Currently appearing at Mr. T. G.'s in Inglewood, on Prairie and Imperial, is the Marv Blue quartet. Word has it that this group is most enjoyable to see and hear. Of course, Mr. T. G.'s is noted for bringing good entertainment to the Inglewood area, so the signing of Marv Blue quartet is in keeping with the house policy there.

New entertainment is appearing in the person of Nora ("good man is hard to find") Kelley at the Branch Office, 2320 Torrance Blvd. Roi Arthur is still there, however, to provide the background.

AT PIZZA PALACE . . . Johnny Lucas and his All-Stars are appearing each Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the Pizza Palace, Sepulveda and Hawthorne. Lucas was a co-founder of the Firehouse Five and has played with top bands of the nation. Sidemen with him include some of the top musicians in the business.
