Extravaganza in 'The Arts' At Marymount Feb. 24

A double fashion show presented by Peggy Hunt, prominent California designer, and her daughter, Jeanette Alexander, former Marymount College student, in which their latest creations from their individual lines will be shown, will highlight the "Living with Art" spectacular at Marymount College Feb. 24.

The fashions will be shown during the champagne dante.

Chairman for the colorful event which marks completion of St. Gertrude's hall, the second student residence, is Mrs. Jack Davidson of Rolling Hills, assisted by Mmes. Charles Lindsay, Robert F. Lande, J. Holt McCracken and Jack B. Bennett.

Scheduled for the varied program, which begins at 4 p.m. in the Student-Faculty Center on campus, will be an exhibit of French modern paintings, an interior decorators show and the champagne dante, with music to be provided by Nelson Riddle Trio.

Mrs. Charles Lindsay is chairman of the decorator show and art exhibit and Mrs. Robert F. Lande is dante chairman.

Mrs. J. Holt McCracken heads the decoration committee and Mrs. Jack B. Bennett is taking reservations.

Faculty advisors include Rev. Mother Gertrude, Provincial of the Religious of the Sacred Heart of Mary, Mother M. du Sacre Coeur, Marymount College president Mother M. David and Mother M. Bernadette.

The spectacular will benefit the development program for the proposed Fine Arts Auditorium Building, which will serve as a cultural center for arts and music on the Peninsula.

Dinner Meeting Feb. 18

Twin Mothers Will Greet New Members

South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will welcome seven new members at their Feb. 18 dinner meeting at Charley's Restaurant in Torrance. As president, Mrs. Glenn Smith introduces the neophyte members, each will be given a Springtime carnation corsage by membership chairman, Mrs. Ronald Eisman. The new members are Mrs. William Bradley of San Pedro, Mrs. Donne Church, Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Richard Gilmore, Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Donald Hastings, Gardena; Mrs. John McDougall, San Pedro; Mrs. Chalmers Strayer, Torrance, and Mrs. Paul Zink, Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. Gilmore will be pinned with two corsages, for she occupies an honored place among the newcomers, having given birth to her second set of twins three months ago. Mrs. Eisman states that with the addition of these seven mothers, club membership has reached its maximum of 75. "However," she added, "we're always pleased to meet prospective members who may phone me for further information."

New members as well as old will participate in one of the club's favorite traditions, the exchange table where twin clothing, toys and equipment are exchanged among members for nominal prices.

Mrs. Richard Cassell of Hollywood Riviera, chairman of the Club's annual fashion show, has disclosed that this year's theme will be "Two For the Show." The Manhattan Room of the Pen & Quill Restaurant will be the lavish setting for the March 18 show. This annual presentation is the club's main philanthropic affair and this year's proceeds will go to the Harbor Area Retarded Children's Foundation.

KATHLEEN TAYLOR ... Accepts Ring

Former Local Girl's Troth Announced

Rev. and Mrs. John L. Taylor, 115 N. 12th St., Montebello, formerly of Torrance, announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Richard Binder, at an open house at their home on Feb. 1. Rev. Taylor was pastor of the Torrance First Methodist Church before going to Montebello.

The future bride was graduated from Torrance High School and is now in her third year of college at California Western University, San Diego.

Her fiancé was graduated from the public schools in Cleveland, O., and attended East Los Angeles College. He is employed as a draftsman for the City of Los Angeles and resides with his parents in Montebello.

The couple plans to be married after Miss Taylor graduates from college in June 1964.

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'No Other Man Looks at Me Now'

Dear Ann: A woman who wrote to you wanted to know why blondes have a reputation for being sexier than other women. I can tell her why. Because they ARE sexier. A blonde will attract more attention from men and I have proved it.

I am a beautician, 41 years old. Ten years ago I decided to make a personal survey. I dyed my hair every color on the chart—from midnight blue-black to silver blonde. I got lots of whistles and propositions as a red head, but believe me, Ann, when I went blonde my popularity zoomed.

I noticed, too, that the blonder I got the more popular I became. As a honey blonde I did well, but when I hit the platinum shades—wow!

I married my present husband when I was an ash blonde. Two months later he asked me to go back to my natural shade—plain brown. He said, "Men like to date blondes but they don't like to be married to them." I agreed and we are getting along fine. No other man ever looks at me now.—THE OLD RESEARCHER

Dear Researcher: I am happy to have the results of your survey. A woman who has dyed her hair every color on the chart is fortunate that she has any hair left. If you had continued your research, you might also have learned how men feel about bald-headed women.

Dear Ann Landers: Two weeks ago I married a wonderful fellow. We spent five glorious days in Florida on our honeymoon. We never had any serious spats during our two-year engagement, so I believed this was good evidence we would get along well together after marriage.

Well, maybe I was wrong. We had the biggest fight of our lives on the third day of our honeymoon. The reason: I telephoned my mother three times.

My husband said he had no idea I was such a mama's girl. I'm very close to my parents and see no reason for him to be upset. I just wanted my folks to know I was thinking of them.

Is it wrong for a girl to be considerate of her parents after marriage?—R.N.C.

Dear R.N.C.: It's indeed admirable of a bride to tele-

TRUE VALENTINES . . . These three adopted children, whose adoptions were handled through the Home Society of California, lend a hand in helping decorate for the Valentine Membership Coffee to be given by the local Sir Beaumont's chapter at the home of Mrs. Gloria Barbour in Palos Verdes tomorrow. The children are from left, Marsha Blaikie, 2½ years, Laura Tucker, 4, and Lisa Tucker, 2.

SPRING BEAUTY . . . California's Peggy Hunt catches a spray for springtime and applies it delicately to a simple, curved sheath in orchid linen blend, banded in green. The spray holds a contrasting lavender taffeta sash among the green silk leaves.

COAT DRESS . . . Another design from the Peggy Hunt collection to be shown at the Marymount "Art Spectacular" is this silk alpaca coat dress with elbow sleeve and full skirt. It is known as the "Social Whirl."

Party Marks Birthdays

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nowlin entertained at a party Saturday evening at their home, 21307 Figueroa, celebrating the birthdays of Mrs. Nowlin and Mr. Jack Vargo.

The evening was spent playing games followed by refreshments. A number of door prizes were awarded.

Attending the party with Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin and Mr. and Mrs. Vargo were Messrs. and Mmes. Marc Kirkpatrick, N. Gadaire, W. Killian, Lane Hoffman, Walter Smith and Mrs. Ruby Kibbe.

Invited, but unable to attend were Messrs. and Mmes. John Dean, G. Cook, A. P. Gunn and Albert Miller.

Adoption Explained

Membership Coffee Planned by Society

Valentines in profusion will provide an appropriate decoration for the Membership Coffee to be staged by the Sir Beaumont's Chapter, Children's Home Society of California, at the home of Mrs. Gloria Barbour, 4016 Via Pima, Palos Verdes, on Friday, Feb. 15.

Mrs. Charles Burton, of Victoria Knolls, Torrance, president of the local auxiliary, will detail future activities of the group. Among the events planned is a visit to the downtown headquarters of the society, to be followed by a luncheon and a potluck dinner with husbands as guests. Miss Joan Finneran, assistant director of Volunteers for Children's Home Society of California, will tell of the work of the adoption agency. She will explain that it is now easier to adopt a child. A few years ago, according to Miss Finneran, there were long waiting lists, but now the average wait from the time of first inquiry until the child is placed in an adoptive home averages only six months.

Any application to the Society's Long Beach Office, 125 E. 14th St., Long Beach, or to the District Headquarters, 3100 W. Adams Blvd., Los Angeles, can be handled promptly.

Children's Home Society of California is licensed by the state and is a privately supported agency. Serving all races and faiths for 71 years, the society is a member of the Los Angeles County Community Chest.

Club Hostess

Mrs. J. G. Louvier, 22606 Evalyn Ave., entertained her bridge club Wednesday evening.

The hostess served dessert followed by the bridge games in which Mrs. Clifford Trezise held high score and Mrs. William Gardner, second.

Club members are Mmes. Edward Aiken, Frank Neff, Lee Clotworthy, William Gardner, Clifford Trezise, William Rogers and Donald Bradford.

Mrs. Trezise will be hostess at the March club meeting.

From Illinois

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Paxton, 1301 Crenshaw, have as their houseguests, Mrs. Paxton's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brodmarkle of Carrollton, Ill.

Alums Offer Scholarship

Mrs. Thomas Black, president of Palos Verdes-South Bay Alumnae of Alpha Xi Delta, announced today that as part of its national philanthropic program Alpha Xi Delta fraternity will award a graduate fellowship in the amount of $1,500 for advanced study in the field of Social Service. Any graduate of an accredited college or university is eligible to apply.

Alpha Xi Delta, national sorority for college women founded at Lombard College 70 years ago, numbers more than 40,000 college and alumnae members. In service to others, their efforts are focused on the American Child and methods of combating juvenile delinquency, by working locally with juvenile courts and social agencies.

The Palos Verdes-South Bay Alumnae Club is working with the Neighborhood Youth Association, helping to furnish their new clubroom. Interested persons may obtain applications for the Fellowship at this time from Mrs. Thomas Black, 2057 W. 264th St., Lomita. Deadline for filing applications is March 1, 1963.

Visitor Feted At Luncheon

Mrs. Gilbert Derouin entertained at a luncheon Thursday at her home, 1625 Beech Ave., honoring Mr. Derouin's sister, Mrs. Aime Le Blanc of Grand Forks, N. D., who is spending three weeks here with relatives.

Guests were three other sisters-in-law of the honoree, Mmes. Louis Derouin, Francis Derouin and Laurence Derouin, and a niece, Mrs. Gary Knutla.

Mrs. Le Blanc is staying with her daughter, Miss Karen Le Blanc in Harbor City.

GALA CASINO NIGHT . . . Nativity Parish Annex will become a brilliantly lighted Casino for a fun night planned by the Nativity Mothers Saturday evening, Feb. 16. Intriguing games, entertainment and a buffet supper to be followed by dancing to the music of the "Moonglows" is the agenda. Committee members planning the event are, from left, Mmes. Donald Sanders, Charles Butterfield, Lloyd Landerville, William Brose and Mr. Richard Olson. Others on the committee are, Mmes. Harold Foley, William Korshensky, James O'Brien, Milton Bruce, Richard Thompson and Joseph Thomassin.
