Teachers Attend Institute

Torrance schools will be represented when more than 500 teachers from 56 Southern California communities meet Saturday at the third annual Institute for Teachers in Beverly Hills High School.

A middle ground approach for discipline of children that neither coddles nor cracks the whip over them will be outlined at the session.

Dr. Rocco L. Motto, clinic medical director and teacher institute chairman, in sounding the day's keynote, said psychoanalysts today believe "discipline belongs to a system that makes freedom and the understanding of a well-balanced personality its foundation."

We are never deceived; we deceive ourselves.—Goethe.

HAPPY FOURSOME . . . Versatile is the word for the music put forth by the Marv Blue Four at the popular Mr. T. G.'s at Imperial Highway and Prairie avenues, Inglewood. The group appears at the club six nights a week, complementing the fine entertainment and dancing fare.

Bits 'n' Bites

Hospitality is the word for the Parasol Restaurant at the corner of Pacific Coast Highway and Crenshaw. This is personified by the "at home" feeling you receive the minute you enter and are escorted by one of the lovely hostesses. Nadine and Beverly are the two charming girls who will greet you with a smile and escort you to your table whether you want one of the Parasol's fine hamburgers or a combination lobster dinner.

Also available are steaks and breakfast 24 hours a day.

The unique parasol-shaped eatery is equaled only by its unique warm atmosphere. In the words of Harry Prod, the Parasol's manager, "It's a pleasure to serve the people."

Mr. Prod also announces that on Monday night they have a regular special of chicken dinner for only $1. Thursday night, Prod adds, the kiddies will receive little parasols when they are accompanied by their parents for dinner. There is a limited supply of these parasols so tonight plan to have dinner at the "gateway to Rolling Hills," the Parasol, and treat the young ones to the free parasol as a reward for good behavior.

Owner of the Parasol is Mr. Angie Pappas who is co-owner of many fine restaurants in the Los Angeles area, the closest of which is the Plush Pony on Pacific Coast Highway near Torrance beach.

Now appearing at Mr. T. G. in Inglewood, corner of Imperial Highway and Prairie, is the "Marv Blue Four." They are offering the entertainment six nights a week and you will be glad you stopped to take these boys in.

Mr. T. G. has a fine selection of dinners and sandwiches to choose from.

Ed Grumes, owner and operator, has just announced the continuance of banquet facilities for service and social clubs and receptions in their spacious room. This room seats 250 persons and is on a split level which makes the dance floor completely visible if the party wishes.

Intriguingly named dinner specials, planned for children's appetites and designed for budget conscious parents, are served at Marineland Restaurant in the Palos Verdes Peninsula, according to owner George M. Foster.

Six different complete dinners, ranging in price from $1.10 to $1.40, comprise the "Junior Seafarer's Menu." Available to Marineland Restaurant guests, 12 years of age and under, are the "Sea Horse Special," "Mermaid Special," "Dolphin Special," "King Neptune Special," "Porpoise Special" and "Seafarer's Special." Currently appearing in the Porpoise Room at Marineland is the favorite of many, "Big Tiny Little."
