

Barnett-Learman Names Are Linked in Marriage

Approximately 250 guests assembled at the Methodist Wayside Chapel in Lomita on Saturday evening, Feb. 16, at 8 o'clock to attend the wedding of Miss Sandra Lee Barnett and Richard Wynn Learman. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barnett, 1854 262nd St., Lomita, was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Learman, 26347 Fairview Ave., Lomita.

The wedding gown was a floor-length white peau de soie detailed with a round neckline and elbow length sleeves. The long slender skirt had a back interest of full unpressed pleats. French lace appliques enhanced the neckline and the full skirt. A white peau de soie pillbox headpiece secured the illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of white gladioli and stephanotis.

Miss Jacquelyn Barnett was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. David Fresenius and Mrs. John Stroope. The attendants were gowned in royal blue silk chiffon, over taffeta, with matching pillbox hats. Their bouquets were of gladioli. The bride made her wedding gown as well as those of the attendants.

Dennis Fresenius stood as best man and ushers were David Germain and Marty Anderson.

Rev. Harold Bryn conducted the vow exchange as Mrs. Robert Malcolm, organist, played the wedding music. Jay Tully was soloist.

A reception was held at the church with Miss Anne Bowen in charge of the bride's book.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Learman are at home at 24517 Eshelman Ave., Lomita.

Both the bride and her husband are graduates of Narbonne High School. Mr. Learman received his BS degree in engineering from USC and is employed by the Los Angeles Dept. of Water and Power.

Twins Arrive At Kesselman Home

Mrs. W. H. Speck, who is now making her home in Monterrey, Mexico, where Mr. Speck is stationed with the American Standards, arrived by plane Monday to visit her new grandchildren, Kathleen Ann and Robert Edward Kesselman, twins, born to Mr. and Mrs. William Kesselman, 17017 Falda, last Thursday.

Kathleen weighed 5 lbs. 15 oz. and Robert tipped the scales at 5 lbs. 12 oz.

Mrs. Kesselman is the former Sally Speck. There are two other Kesselman children, Michael, 3½ years, and Dennis, 2½.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kesselman of North Hollywood, formerly of this area.

A proud great-grandfather is Mr. Lawrence Edwins of Redondo, early pioneer resident.
