REPAIRS UNDER WAY . . . Lt. J. M. Reid (left), officer-in-charge of the U. S. Navy hospital ship, Haven, and T. A. McMahl Jr., of Torrance, who is a service craft officer at the U. S. Long Beach Naval station, stand on bridge of ship as she prepares to get under way for the first time in almost six years. "Bo'n" McMahl's tugs assisted the Haven in making her two-hour cruise to a nearby shipyard where she will undergo overhaul for the next three months.

Armed Forces

Airman 2/c William F. Sollee has been named honor graduate of the United States Air Force air armament mechanic course at Lowry AFB, Colo.

Airman Collee, who attained a final average of 92 to win the honor, learned to isolate and repair malfunctions and perform checks and adjustments on the armament system of the F-105 jet fighter. He is being reassigned to George AFB, Calif., for duty in his new specialty.

The airman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florin W. Sollee, 613 S. Gertruda, Redondo Beach, is a graduate of Redondo Union High School.

Dennis C. Monerief, electronics technician third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Monerief of 4829 Camelynn St., and Ronald A. Youngker, hospitalman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Youngker of 150 W. 226th St., returned aboard the attack transport USS Paul Revere to San Diego, Calif., Jan. 19, after a seven-month deployment to the Western Pacific.

The Paul Revere participated in operations in Hawaii and in Okinawa, which included over 20,000 Navy and Marine personnel; 80 ships; and 200 aircraft.

Larry D. Young, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Young of 22129 Neptune Ave., and Elwyn G. Beedy, chief electronics technician, USN, son of Mrs. Ethel E. Scott of 1900 W. Artesia Blvd., are serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation, which was part of the combined force of 20 ships engaged in Exercise Saddle Blanket early in February off the coast of Southern California.

The five-day exercise, held from Feb. 4 through Feb. 8, dealt mainly with anti-submarine warfare training. The operation centered around a fast carrier striking force, with its wide range of detection and strike capabilities.

Marine Sgt. Lewis A. Marchetti Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Marchetti of 1942 Reynosa Dr., returned to El Toro Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Ana, Calif., Jan. 26, after spending three weeks in combat exercises in Arizona.

The exercise included rocket firing in the desert near Yuma. Ground crew mechanics, ordnancemen, and others received experience in their jobs during the exercise.

Airman 3rd class James R. Jones is being reassigned to Mather AFB, Calif., following his graduation from the United States Air Force technical training course for jet aircraft mechanics at Amarillo AFB, Texas.

Airman Jones was trained to maintain and service multi-engine jet aircraft and aircraft systems.

The airman, a graduate of North High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Jones of 3414 W. 171st St.

James L. Palmer, aviation storekeeper third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ariand F. Palmer of 1751 Andree Ave., reported Jan. 23 for duty at the Naval Station, Sangley Point, Philippines.

A graduate of Torrance High School, Palmer entered the service in January 1961.
