Tribe Moves Into Contention

ICE HOCKEY TORRANCE OLYMPIANS
 TUES., MARCH 26
 8:30 P. M.
 OLYMPIC ICE ARENA

Strong late inning pitching and steady hitting in clutch situations have slowly propelled El Camino College baseballers into the thick of the Metropolitan Conference title chase.

After a slow start, the Warriors are now owners of a 3-3 Metro mark, two games behind league-leading Long Beach. In their last three outings, the Tribe thumpers hounded Valley 13-3, then split a twin bill with San Diego, winning 6-3 and dropping the finale, 4-0.

CHUCK FREEMAN'S fence-busters will host two of the conference's perennial powerhouses, East Los Angeles and Bakersfield, tomorrow and Saturday afternoons. Ching Duhm's ELA Huskies have been plagued by a rash of mediocre pitching performances plus a gradual silence in their booming bats.

TWO LETTERMEN return to the Huskie camp and coach Duhm has been unable to mold his squad around promising but untested freshmen recruits.

Third baseman Ron Terranova has been forced to the outfield, taking away much-needed infield defense, while second sacker Dave Keays has effortlessly attempted to patch up the interior secondary.

BAKERSFIELD stands a half game behind the L. B. Vikings and could move into the lead before the weekend action comes to a close. Their offense is built around

BMHS Nine Drops Initial Loop Contest

With one loss behind it in Camino Real League baseball competition, Bishop Montgomery will encounter St. Bernard tomorrow at 3:30 p.m. on the Knight diamond.

On Tuesday, in the opening league contest, Montgomery was handed a 3-1 defeat by Alemany.

BMHS held a 1-0 lead from the fourth inning on, but Alemany shoved across three markers in the sixth frame to notch the win.

power hitters Jim Antt and Forrest Riddle, each of whom powered four-baggers in the rain-soaked tilt on Santa Monica's soggy soil, Saturday afternoon.

THE RENEGADES drubbed the Cerritos Falcons, 10-2, Friday and won a wild 11-9, eight inning decision over the SMCC Corsairs.

El Camino coach Chuck Freeman has been pleased with his squad's performance this year, stressing the unexpected relief pitching strength from freshman Larry Chastain, a hard-throwing yearling from Gardena.

SCHEDULED to open for the Redskins this weekend will be infielders Ed Beckwith, Neil Minami, Rusty Forman and Bob Hettig, outfielders Bob Pivi, Dennis Stewart and Dennis Grace and catcher Bob Harley.

Pitching assignments should be divided between Jon Beck, Jerry Smith and Jeff Ripley, all of whom have shown uncanny early game performances.
