YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'Research Continues To Churn Up Evidence . . .'

Dear Ann: Our daughter is 35 years old, happily married, with four bright children. She has a beautiful home, and everything to live for.

Both her husband, her father and I are worried to death about her excessive smoking. She has been a heavy smoker since she was a teenager. Although she knew I never approved, she continued to smoke through the years.

Several months ago she was spitting up blood. She quit smoking and went to the doctor. When the X-rays showed no sign of cancer she went back to smoking two packs a day although the doctor advised her against it.

I'm so afraid she will develop cancer that it's making a nervous wreck out of me. She says she has smoked so long now that if she's going to get cancer she will get it. Period. What can I say to this head-strong girl?

—WORRIED MOTHER

Dear Mother: Probably nothing. Anyone who can read or hear knows by now that there is a definite link between lung cancer and cigarettes. Scientific research continues to churn up more and more damning evidence.

Not everyone who smokes will get lung cancer, obviously, and your daughter may escape it. But worrying has been known to bury people prematurely, so try to get your mind off her smoking and on something else.

Dear Ann Landers: That letter describing the prom committee system which insures all girls a date to the Junior-Senior Prom was the greatest. I'm going to take it up with our student council in September.

I happen to be a girl who never was short of dates, but I know some awfully nice girls who sit home all the time because they don't have sex appeal. Fellows won't even bother to ask them out and get to know how great they really are.

Thanks for printing that one, Ann. It was tops.—JILL

Dear Jill: I'm glad you wrote. Here's another point of view:

Dear Ann Landers: That letter about the prom committee serving as matchmakers was a real roar.

I'd rather sit home until my hair turned white and my teeth fell out than get fixed up by a stupid committee.

Who wants to be chosen out of pity? Not me.

—SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS

Dear Spirit: I'll bet anything you don't do much sittin' home, Toots. It's difficult for a busy girl to imagine what life is like for the ones whose phones never ring.

In the meantime, if it takes a committee to get some of the fellows off their rusty dusties, I say why not?

Confidential to MY RIGHT

TO KNOW: Yeah? Who gave you the right? When I form a "Mind Your Own Business Club" I'm going to nominate you for president.

Confidential to SCARED

TO DEATH: Tell your mother at once. Do not try the drug your friend recommended. It is extremely dangerous and furthermore it won't work.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Popping—and How Far to Go," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1963, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.
