Local Minister Asked To Direct Kitchen Work

Russell D. Cantwell, circuit minister for the Torrance congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has been asked to assist in the preparation for the Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Rose Bowl, Sept. 1 to 8.

Mr. Cantwell, a former member of the Watchtower Society's headquarters staff, has been in the ministry for 37 years. He was an administrative affairs officer for the New York international convention held in Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds in 1958, and will be in charge of food service for the delegates to the Pasadena assembly.

His responsibility at the Rose Bowl convalescence will be in charge of preparations to feed all 70,000 delegates. He will be asking for 3,000 volunteers to help in the mass feeding program.

The Pasadena assembly will be attended by delegates from all 50 states and 34 other countries.

St. Catherine Parish Plans Mission Week

St. Catherine Labouré Catholic Church, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., will open a Parish Mission beginning Sunday. The services will be held nightly through Aug. 21.

The mission service will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by an instructive sermon. Father John Hoorman, a Precious Blood Father from Woodside, will conduct the mission.

The Rev. Father Raymond Tepe explained the mission is for "the renewal of our spiritual values." He also added that he hopes all who attend will examine their heart and prepare for their spiritual future.

All Catholics and non-Catholics are invited to attend the services.

Supervisors Will Honor Dr. Graham

Supervisors will honor The Rev. Billy Graham in special ceremonies in the Hall of Administration next Tuesday as the city and county make ready for the opening of the Billy Graham Crusade at the Los Angeles County Coliseum Aug. 15.

Dr. Graham will receive a scroll from the Board of Supervisors and be the guest at a reception following the presentation.

On the following day, Dr. Graham will deliver his first sermon of the crusade as the executive committee and the coliseum workers meet for breakfast. The workers will participate in the dedication ceremonies.

The crusade will open at the Coliseum on Thursday, Aug. 15. It will run through Sept. 8.

Management Course Set At Harbor

A course in office management will be offered students at Harbor College during the fall. The course will be given in the business division.

James McArthur of the IBM Corp. will teach the class, which will meet each Monday from 6:30 to 9:30.

The course will include an analysis of the functions of office departments, organization of offices, and their management. Applications for admission to the course should be submitted through the Admission Office, Harbor College. The deadline for admission is Sept. 6.

Pacific Bank Growth Cited

Outstanding gains have been reported for Pacific State Bank's Torrance office, according to President R. C. Yeary. He said the office had grown twice as fast as any of Pacific's other area offices during the six month period just ended.

In announcing gains for the office which was opened here late in 1962, Yeary commended Manager Keith Pischel for the achievement.

The office is at 21600 S. Normandie Ave. in the Carson Shopping Center.

Heart Drive Chairman Names Goals

Smoking, obesity, and stroke (S.O.S.) have been singled out as targets by the Los Angeles County Heart Assn. for the coming year, according to William R. Ohland, newly appointed fund chairman for 1964.

In his first statement as chairman, Ohland cited a recent statement issued by the association which noted the statistical relationship between smoking and heart disorders.
