

League Study Of Library Continues Couple To Wed Early Next Year

As part of their library study this year, the Torrance League of Women Voters held an informal workshop on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Howard Foote, 21413 Kent Ave., to discuss the present library program in Torrance.

Representing the County Library were William Geller, county librarian and Mrs. Elton Terry, chief professional library services.

Aspects of the new Torrance library contract, recently approved by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors were discussed in detail.

League of Women Voters is making a study in terms of the needs of the community with emphasis on service, personnel, materials, facilities, financing and an evaluation of public library services.

League members attending were Mmes. C. R. Berwanger, president; Howard Foote, chairman; Mark Kellman, Emery Reeves, James Reis, William Sandstrom and Sidney Weiner.

Miss Sandra Marie Pendleton and Norman Dant, Jr. have chosen Jan. 25, 1964 as their wedding date.

The announcement of the engagement and wedding plans is being made today by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pendleton, 22237 Catskill Ave., Torrance.

Miss Pendleton will be graduated from Banning High in January 1964.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dante, 19125 Inglewood Blvd., Torrance, attended North High School. He served three years with the United States Army stationed in Germany and is now employed by a plumbing firm.

Houseguests

Mrs. Alice Maddock of Torrance has returned to her home following a weeks visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf of Halldale Avenue.

Rummage Sale Set Monday

Torrance Ladies of the Elks will hold a rummage sale on Monday, Aug. 26, at the House of Rummage on Rosecrans Blvd., in Compton. Sale hours are from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Those having rummage to donate are asked to take items to the House of Rummage, 117 Rosecrans Blvd., on Sunday, Aug. 25, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Mrs. Buck Bordeaux, 2210 Bataan Rd., Redondo, is sale chairman, and may be called for further information.

Junior Cooks Come Up With Prize Delicacies

Climaxing a series of summer classes in space-age cooking lessons for youth, the Space Age Junior Cooks Fair on Friday, July 26, at the Torrance Recreation Center was the scene of happy winners of awards for delicious entries by Torrance boys and girls.

Judged by Mrs. Rose Craig and Lawrence Gitschier, Torrance Park and Recreation Commissioners, the contest included 50 entries in three divisions—candies, cakes, and cookies.

Winners in the three categories were: candies—first,

Sharon Dotemoto, almond roca; Sue Edwards, divinity; and Chuck Russi, pralines. Cakes—first, Rosemary Catena, raisin cake; second, Nancy Rogers, date nut; and Mark Ketsdever, velvet. Cookies—first, Debbie Dawer, chocolate devils; second, Marja Elliott, chocolate chip cookies; and third, Susan Kinane, chocolate chip cookies.

The cooking lessons, open to boys and girls of 10 to 15 years, were offered as a public service by the Southern Edison Co. in co-sponsorship with the Torrance Recreation Dept.

'Courtesy' Night Noted By Lodge

Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, observed "Courtesy" and "Birthdays" nights at their regular meeting held July 18 at the Torrance Masonic Lodge.

Courtesy officers filling the stations were Florence Villenave, worthy matron; Raymond Shaffer, worthy patron; Mary Anderson, associate matron; Leonard Babcock, associate patron; Helen Carpenter, secretary; Mildred Mittan, treasurer; Carolyn Pennington, conductress; Edna Babcock, associate conductress; Mona Bizendine, chaplain; Bernice Ruppel, marshal; and Winiford Barnard, organist.

Star points for the evening were Francis Reiser, Ada; Margaret Raymond, Ruth; Requa Shepard, Esther; Adele Abbott, Martha; Lillian St. John, Electra.

Jean McAloon served as warder and Vincent Villenave was sentinel. Others participating were Jean Moser, prompter; Gerald Mittan, flag bearer; and Francis Munday, electrician.

Florence Villenave, deputy grand matron of 1959, was honored with the presence of a large number of 1959 past matrons and patrons.

Council to Hear Speaker At Meeting

Mrs. Mike Marinovich, president of the St. Philomena Women's Council, announces a special program for the Aug. 26 meeting at the school hall, 21900 S. Main St.

The American Cancer Society has arranged for a doctor-speaker, who will show a film, "Breast Self-Examination." Literature will be distributed. All women are invited to attend this program which begins at 8:45 p.m.

Prior to the program, a meeting will be held beginning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Marinovich also announces a social to be held in the school hall on Aug. 22. Sponsor will be the Joan Guild with Mrs. Allan Malgaard and Mrs. Peter Verkerke in charge.

A summer dance has been scheduled for Aug. 31 at the Retail Clerks Hall in Harbor City. Dress is informal and an orchestra will furnish the music.

Altar duties for the month are being performed by St. Mary's guild, who will serve refreshments at the meeting. Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. Glowac are hostesses.
