Mike's Thursday Mailbag
Dear Mike: Isn't it true that Sandra Dee went back to her husband, Bobby Darin, because she felt sorry for him — after his heart attack?—Patsy Cody, Congers, N.Y.

drunk part he played in "Days of Wine and Roses"?
Dear Mike: My husband and I have a bet on whether Judy Garland was ever married to Mickey Rooney. I say she was not. Also, how old is she? — Mrs. Betty Gore, Chico, Calif.

Dear Patsy: Sandra didn't go back to Bobby, Bobby went back to Sandra. And the simple truth of the whole enchilada is that the kids are so madly in love with each other they can't live without each other.

Dear Betty: You win, she wasn't. She's 41.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Regarding Anthony Quinn's recent statement to the press concerning the child he fathered out of wedlock, I wish to convey a "bravo" to him — for behavior so becoming to the human race. Where may I reach him? I would like to send him a book. — Anna McIntosh, San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mike: How old are Gregory Peck, John Wayne, Robert Preston, Mary Badham and Tony Curtis? How could I get autographed photos? — Elaine Gutteridge, San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Anna: Write to him care of his agent, Milton Grossman, 9000 Sunset Blvd., Beverly Hills, Calif.

Dear Elaine: They're (respectively) 47, 57, 50, 8 and 38. Write to Screen Actors Guild for photos (and that also goes for readers Marge Cancell, J. C. Nounann, Barbara Arnold, Alice Clements and R. L. Keup, who ask for addresses on Lloyd Bohener, Jayne Mansfield, Michael Anderson Jr., Rita Hayworth and Lawrence Welk — all of which sure helps to clean up my mail this week.

Dear Mike: Is it certain yet whether Elizabeth Taylor will play Guinevere in the movie version of "Camelot"? I was hoping it would be Julie Andrews, who played it on the stage. — "Peanut," Philadelphia, Pa.

Aside to My Pen Pals: Please, pals, don't ask for home addresses because I won't give them to you. Write to the Screen Actors Guild—and this is the last time I mention this!

Dear "Peanut": It looks like Liz, Julie, sorry to say, doesn't photograph as "romantically" as she appears on the stage — as you must know if you've ever seen her on TV. She has a very square jaw. And that's why she's now playing the spinsterish "Mary Poppins" for Walt Disney.

Dear Mr. Hollywood: I saw Jerry Van Dyke stumble and fall on his TV show, "Picture This," recently. Did he hurt himself? — N. Borgeson, Garden Grove, Calif.

Dear Mike: I've read about Mel Ferrer and many other well-known actors taking up "Civil Rights action" here in the U.S. Could you explain what they are trying to do (or hope to do)? Also, when will we be seeing Audrey Hepburn and Bill Holden in "Paris When It Sizzles" here in Peoria? — Warren Stevens, Peoria, Ill.

Dear N.: Not at all. It's part of this very funny guy's act.

Dear Warren: Read your favorite newspaper, The Peoria Journal Star, for stories about Civil Rights March on Washington, D.C. "Paris" will play Peoria sometime after it plays Chicago, probably this fall.

Young Writer Places Letter In Magazine

Young Gregory Wilson of Torrance has made a trip to Las Vegas and the Great Salt Lake pay off for him in the form of a published letter in the September issue of Jack and Jill magazine.

Dear Warren: Read your favorite newspaper, The Peoria Journal Star, for stories about Civil Rights March on Washington, D.C. "Paris" will play Peoria sometime after it plays Chicago, probably this fall.

Wilson, 8, of 808 Teri Ave., visited the two places of interest on a trip back to his former home in Minnesota. The youth will receive a framed certificate of merit from the 25-year-old children's monthly magazine.

Deadline Near For Car Owners To File Return

Highway vehicle owners or operators liable for the Federal Highway Use Tax on highway motor vehicles used in July must must file returns by Sept. 3, 1963, announced District Director R. A. Riddell of the Internal Revenue Service office in Los Angeles.

Dear Sir: With a name like "Lemmon", how come Jack doesn't capitalize on it and do a liquor commercial — like "With a Twist of Lemmon"? — Marcia Pope, Napoleon, Ohio.

The director said that Form 2290 should be used for this purpose.

Dear Marcia: Not very likely, especially after that dead-
