FAMILY SCENE . . . Portraying a scene from "Five Finger Exercise," currently playing at Chapel Theatre in Torrance, are (L to R) Jack Daly, Melinda Plowman, Bob Bathew and Margaret Middleton. The drama depicts a family torn apart by its inability to communicate. Directed by Ed Long, the play takes advantage of the artistry of several veteran actors plus the youth of three new actors from Hollywood.

Trailer Park Residents Ask Signal Installation

Residents of the Skyline Mobil Home Park jammed the City Council chambers Tuesday evening to present a petition to Mayor Albert Isen requesting the installation of traffic signals on Pacific Coast Highway. The Council accepted the petition and ordered it sent to the State Division of Highways, which must approve signals at the location. A meeting between developers of the trailer park, the shopping center, and the city will be arranged. The State Division of Highways must approve signals, but installation costs will have to be borne by the developers since the exits are private driveways, said councilmen.

Los Angeles School Bus Center Open

Special bus information centers for parents whose children will be attending Los Angeles City schools will be opened Tuesday in several locations. The centers will provide information on bus routes and pickup times. The centers will be able to determine if any particular child meets the requirements for bus transportation to and from schools. Head drivers will be at the centers to assist in answering questions. All centers will be closed Monday, Sept. 9, for the Admission Day holiday.

Breakfast Will Welcome Teachers

The breakfast, held annually by the TEA, is scheduled to begin at 8 a.m. at the South High School cafeteria. New teachers in the Torrance schools will be the guests of honor at a breakfast sponsored by the Torrance Education Assn. Friday, Sept. 6.

The center serving the following schools will be located at Narbonne High School: Elementary Schools: Bonita Street, 21829 Bonita St.; Del Amo, 25902 E. 213th St.; Eshelman, 25902 Eshelman Ave.; and Gulf Avenue, 1196 Gulf Ave. Junior High Schools: Fleming, 25425 Walnut St.; Wilmington, 1700 Gulf Ave. High Schools: Banning, 1500 Avalon Blvd.; Carson, 22328 S.
