YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'Difference Begins, How You Feel . . .

Dear Ann Landers: Well, I just read another article in a magazine—probably the 500th on the same subject—"Women: How To Hang On To Your Husbands."

It's the same old palaver—let him dump his shoes and socks in the living room. It's OK if newspapers and cigarette ashes are dropped on the floor, so what? The same goes for matches, toothpicks, jackets, shirts, shorts. Let him slop coffee on the rug. Just mop it up and keep smiling.

Baby him. Spoil him. Pamper him. Make him feel important. Love him to death. Make sure there's nothing left for anyone else. Keep your hair neat. Wear starched little dresses. Be tidy at all times. And by all means be cheerful—he gets enough guff in the business world. After all, he might not be here next year.

Well, my husband may not be here next year—but there's an even better chance that I won't be here either. I'll probably be in a mental hospital.

Thanks for listening. I feel better already.

—ONE OF MILLIONS

Dear One: There's a difference between doing things for a man because you love him, and being a doormat and an unwilling slave. The difference begins with how you feel about the guy. Thanks for letting me know how you feel about yours.

Dear Ann Landers: This problem is a hot potato which has been kicking around our office for months because no one knows what to do about it.

A certain girl who came to work here quite some time ago is just as pleasant as she can be. She's efficient, gets her work done early, then helps others to do theirs. But one thing about her bothers all of us. Even the men have commented on it.

She is one of those "clean on top, dirty underneath, types," as my mother used to say. Her face is always made up just so and her hair is lovely, but her lingerie straps are filthy, her slips look as if they have never been laundered and if her garter breaks she doesn't bother to sew it back on. She pins her stockings to her girdle. When she crosses her knees and the pins and her dirty slip show, it is revolting.

Weir-Bauman Wedding Friday in Palos Verdes

Miss Margaret Weir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Weir, 22835 Adolpn Ave., Torrance will become the bride of Robert Bauman, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, 3946 Palos Verdes Dr., N., formerly of Torrance, tomorrow evening. The wedding will take place at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes.

The future bride was complimented at a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Ed Bakerbower and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Compher at their Hollywood Riviera home on Aug. 23.

An orchid and turquoise color scheme was used in decorating and in the refreshments. The table was centered by a decorated cake under an umbrella. Gifts were placed under an orchid and turquoise umbrella. Games were played after which the bride-elect opened her gifts.

The party list included Mmes. Lee R. Weir, M. A. Bauman, Donald Woods, Raleigh Smith, Wallace Mack, Laurence Nelson, Richard Barton, Lloyd Saunders, Horace Watson, Edwin Wood, Michael Bartelt.

Also, Misses Carolyn Weir, Sharon Smith, Dawn Wood, Jackie Findley, Kathy Jones and Ann Saunders.

Sending gifts were Mrs. H. D. Bauman, R. E. Oswald, Long Beach; Mrs. Elizabeth MacKay, Laguna; Mrs. Charles Haynes, Flintridge; Miss Nancy Oswald, Redondo; and Miss Terry Grill, Rolling Hills.

Last Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Lee Weir, mother of the bride, entertained the girls of the bridal party and their mothers at a luncheon at her home. The fall colors, which will be used at the wedding, made up the color scheme for the party.

Attending this affair were the bride-elect, with Mmes. M. A. Bauman, E. Lloyd Saunders, M. Jones, Donald Wood, Wallace Mack, E. Wood, Robert Compher, Ed Bakerbower and Laurence Nelson. Others were Misses Ann Saunders, Carolyn Weir, Dawn Wood and Jackie Findley. The attendants were presented their gifts by the future bride.

This evening following rehearsal, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman will entertain the members of the bridal party at a dinner at their Palos Verdes home. The buffet table will be centered by an arrangement of fall flowers. After the dinner the benedict-elect will present his attendants with their gifts.

The list for this party includes the hosts, the bridal couple, and Messrs. and Mmes Lee Weir, Donald Woods; Misses Cathy Jones, Ann Saunders, Sharon Smith, Carolyn Weir; and Messrs. William Bauman, Richard Watson, Edwin Wood, Frank Parker and Robert Griess.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL PARTY . . . Torrance Ladies of the Elks will stage a costume "back-to-school" party following their business meeting Tuesday, Sept. 10. In an old-fashion school "daze" are from left, Mmes Patrick Huffine, Don Lemen, teacher, and Elmer Lancaster, the culprit. A film "Perversion for Profit" will be shown followed by the party and refreshments. Mrs. Henry Davis is chairman. (Herald Photo)

C. N. Hanlon Will Marry Laguna Girl

Planning an early spring 1964 wedding are Miss Antoinette Harrison and Clare Nicol Hanlon.

The announcement of her daughter's engagement is made by Mrs. Mary Jane Harrison of Laguna.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gerald Hanlon, 16616 Ermanita Ave., Torrance. He was graduated from North High School and attended Chapman College in Orange.

Miss Harrison, a graduate of Laguna Beach High School, plans to attend Orange Coast College this fall.

Hostess at Club Party

Mrs. J. C. Warnock, Jr. entertained a table of guests on Wednesday at her home 3241 Opal St. as one of the diminishing card parties which benefit the Torrance Woman's club.

Mrs. Warnock's guests for dessert and canasta were Mmes. E. G. Laughrey, J. G. Laird and Mary Davis.

Family Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. James Carlin, Cindy and Mona, 722 Acacia, and Mrs. Carlin's mother, Mrs. Pauline Delsigne, have returned from a two weeks vacation spent in Washington. They visited in Seattle before going to Clear Lake to spend most of their vacation water skiing. At Clear Lake, they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Janasik of Kirkland, former Torrance residents.

Stamps-Giacomi Names Are Linked in Marriage

Miss Susan Stamps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leondrus Stamps, walked down the aisle of the First Methodist Church on the arm of her father at 8 o'clock on Friday evening, Aug. 23, to plight her wedding vows with Gary Louis Giacomi. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mario Giacomi, 1714 245th St., Lomita.

The Aida original wedding gown was of pure silk organza over peau de soie. It was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and fitted bodice. The controlled skirt, appliqued with reembrodered Alencon lace, featured a bustle back and draped into a princess train. Chiffon flowers and seed pearls formed her crown from which cascaded her silk illusion bridal veil. The bouquet was of mystery gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Linda Wilson, wearing turquoise organza in a tiered sheath with full overskirt, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Cathy Clutter and Zeld Black. They were also dressed in turquoise and each attendant carried yellow roses encircled by white daisies.

Thomas Perkins stood as best man and ushers were Pat Giacomi, Frank Wagester and Johnny Stamps.

The Rev. John Nagel, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Ruth Magart accompanied Miss Judy Blair who sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love."

A reception was held at the church. Misses Joyce Miyamoto and Joyce Takayama assisted in serving and Mrs. Nancy Timmons and Miss Bethy Kealey registered the 250 guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and in San Francisco. Their new address is 2732 Arlington Ave.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and University of California, Riverside campus.

Her husband, a 1960 Narbonne graduate, will attend USC this fall.

Jean Sprout Exchanges Vows with David Beard

Approximately 200 guests assembled at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on Sunday, Aug. 25, to attend the late afternoon marriage ceremony in which Miss Melba Jean Sprout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Sprout, 1327 Beech Ave., exchanged her nuptial vows with David Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Beard, 2312 246th Pl., Lomita.

Mrs. Meredith Anderson, organist, played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Vincent Di Fiore who sang "O Perfect Love" "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Sanctuary of the church was beautifully decorated in pink and white floral arrangements interspersed with tall lighted cathedral candles in white standards.

Mr. Sprout escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her Venetian original wedding gown was of silk organza. The round neckline and long pointed sleeves were ornamented with Italian lace appliques as were the two unpressed pleated of the full skirt from which fell a chapel train. The Italian lace appliques also enhanced the bridal train. A lace crown, outlined with tiny pearls, held the fingertip silk illusion veil and the bride carried a cascade of vanda orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Peggy Sprout was her sister's honor attendant and bridesmaids were Misses Linda Sprout, Andra Silver, and Carolyn Shirley. Flower girls with Rebecca and Gwendolyn Mallard. All of the attendants wore blush pink silk taffeta fashioned with a bustle. With this they wore blush pink hats and each carried a French line bouquet of white carnations with blush pink trim. Kenneth Beard stood as best man and ushers were (Continued on Page 16)

Rippys Home From Europe

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rippy, 1611 El Prado, returned recently from a two months vacation in Europe. The Rippys visited the Scandinavian countries traveling north to Lapland and the Arctic Circle. They then made a return visit to Spain, Ireland and Scotland.

Nancy Jessome Becomes Bride of Gerald Herman

Rev. William O'Toole officiated at the nuptial mass and ceremony at eleven o'clock on Saturday Aug. 24 at Nativity Catholic Church when Miss Nancy Ruth Jessome exchanged her marriage vows with Gerald Dean Herman. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Jessome of Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Riopelle of Long Beach.

As the wedding guests assembled, Miss Kathleen Jessome, sister of the bride, played a medley of nuptial music. She also accompanied Miss Louise Giarratano who sang Schubert's "Ave Maria", "On This Day" and "Panis Angelicus."

Mr. Jessome escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of Chantilly lace and silk organza detailed with a fitted lace bodice, long pointed sleeves, Sabrina neckline, and a bouffant floor length skirt. Her French illusion bridal veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Mrs. John Campbell was her sister's honor attendant. She wore an electric blue peau de soie sheath with matching overskirt and a pillbox hat. Her flowers were pale blue chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Lyle Miller performed the duties of best man and ushers were Richard Riopelle, James Seckington and Glen Munsell.

A reception was held at the Torrance Woman's club. Mrs. Russell Garland registered the guests.

After a honeymoon in northern California, the newly-married couple will be at home in Long Beach.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High school. Her husband, an alum of St. Anthony's High school, is also
