A GALAXY OF fruits nest with cottage cheese on flavorful cantaloupe rings for a gay Circus Salad.

THE BIG TOP

Make Circus Ring of California Fruits

The revelry and riotous color of the big top are found in abundance—culinarily speaking—in Cantaloupe Circus Salad.

One ring of cantaloupe is topped with diced fresh pears, pineapple chunks, seedless grapes and cantaloupe balls, while the companion ring is mounded with cottage cheese.

This delightful fruit and cheese melange is served with chilled crushed strawberry-sour cream dressing and garnished as you please.

- CIRCUS SALAD
- 2 cantaloupes
 - 2 fresh pears
 - Salad greens
 - 1 cup fresh pineapple chunks
 - 1 cup seedless grapes
 - 1 cup cottage cheese
 - 1 cup strawberries
 - 2 tsp. sugar
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 1/2 tsp. grated lemon rind
 - 2 lbs. dairy sour cream
- Slice ends from cantaloupes; cut rest of each melon into 4 thick slices. Remove seeds and rind. Cut melon balls from end pieces.
- Pare, core and slice pears. Prepare pineapple. Line 4 salad plates with greens and arrange 2 overlapping melon rings on each.
- Arrange other fruits on one ring; mound cottage cheese on other. Serve with strawberry Cream Dressing made this way: Crush strawberries or use frozen ones if fresh are unavailable.
- Combine with sugar, salt, lemon rind and sour cream. Omit sugar if frozen sweetened berries are used. Chill thoroughly.

MRS. BIANCOROSSO

Finalist for Bake-Off Here

Finalists in this year's Grand National Pillsbury General Electric Bake-Off have just been named. A local winner is Mrs. Tony Bianco, 2502 Via Corona of Montebello.

Caroline Biancorosso has a prize-winning recipe in the main dish category. It's an old recipe, adapted from one her mother brought from Italy.

Mrs. Biancorosso has already won $100, a new General Electric American Range, a GE mixer and a bonus check for $150 for a wardrobe because she had her official entry blank validated before she sent it in.

She will also have her stay at the Beverly Hilton and a chance at one of the big prizes.

California leads all states in the number of finalists with ten of the hundred winners.

ipline he is reacting to overly protective parents. I remember one mother in particular who returned to the camp gate after three heart-rending farewells—using first one excuse, and then another. She was deeply hurt because her son didn't hang on to her skirt. The father of the boy finally led the sobbing woman away assuring her that the boy really did love her.

Children who are the problems at camp are invariably the ones who have been pampered at home. Their mothers try to prolong their infancy. Only once did I see a father who was guilty of this.

I'm sorry I didn't have a chance to talk with Vincent who phoned his ma to "come and get him." Perhaps I could have changed the course of his life. — PENTWATER, MICH.

Dear Pentwater: Thanks for a fine letter. I hope Vincent's ma sees it.

Dear Ann Landers: My daughter married a man I can't tolerate. He has an irritating voice and dramatizes every trivial incident until I could scream. I try not to be critical of him because I don't want to make my daughter unhappy, but it's impossible to be on guard every moment. My daughter becomes furious when I utter even one word of complaint against him.

I do not ask them to visit me. They come because they want to. What can I do to cure myself of this horrible feeling of revulsion against my daughter's husband? I despise myself for not being able to handle the situation better but I loathe the man and it shows. — OUTLAW IN-LAW

Dear Outlaw: Suggest to your daughter that she arrange her visits for the most part when she can come alone. The less you see of her husband the better for all of you.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Most toddlers go through a stage of saying "no" to everything whether they mean it or not. Ways to cut down a determined one's "no's":

Have you ever thought your toddler may be learning to be negative through too many "no's" from you? Your "no's" will be more effective, less likely to be imitated, if used only when necessary.

"No's" are best ignored when the reasons behind them are not serious.

*When you must restrict, diplomacy, diversion and direction work more wonders than threats.

Accentuate goodness to cut down negatives at mealtimes. How? Offer foods with colors and flavors that sing. Like Gerber Junior Foods... prepared and seasoned with an eye to enjoyment. Then you might try a selling job, by telling junior how good the food is. A taste or two, accompanied with an "um-mm" from you, is most convincing. If you

Always a phone at hand in a home that's Telephone-Planned

insist on / CONCEALED TELEPHONE WIRING ADEQUATE WIRING FOR ALL YOUR ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

One of the best investments you can make in building or buying a new home or remodeling an old one is adequate telephone and electrical wiring. Here's why:

Modern living calls for the conveniences of extension phones and the addition from time to time of labor-saving electrical appliances. It costs far less to have adequate wiring installed at the outset, to provide for the present and future.

It costs less still if you put in concealed telephone wiring and plenty of phone outlets at the same time the electrical wiring is being installed. Then you can add extension telephones where and when you need them.

Adequate telephone and electrical wiring immediately adds to the value of your home.

Plan to modernize your phone life now. An experienced telephone representative is always available to advise you, your architect or contractor on any matter of planning or installation. There is no charge for this service. Call our Business Office for details on how to plan for modern phone convenience.
