

Agency Elects Board

Ray D. Edwards and Russell C. Chase were among the officers elected to serve the recently organized Conference of Federal Savings and Loan Associations.

Edwards, senior vice president of the Glendale Federal Savings and Loan, was named as first president. Chase, president of Marina Federal, will serve as vice president and secretary.

The conference, comprising 27 Federal Savings and Loan Associations in greater Los Angeles, will act as an education and informational agency to clarify policies and activities of the associations in relation to the industry in general.

RE Course Will Cover Exchanges

Norman Jacobson, of Wagner Co., Inc., Realtors, and specialist in apartment house exchanges, will instruct the University of California Extension course, "Real Estate Exchanges and Taxation." Classes will be offered Thursday evenings, beginning Sept. 19, at George W. Crozier Junior High School, Inglewood.

Jacobson will cover the mechanics of multiple tax-free exchanges, placing emphasis on how to recognize a legitimate exchange, along with techniques for drafting exchange contracts and also the stressing of depreciation factors.

Secretaries Set Regular Dinner Meet

"Are You Phono-Genic?" will be the lecture topic of Mrs. Margaret Charles at the regular dinner meeting tonight of the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Assn.

Mrs. Charles, member of the association, is secretary to the vice president marketing and sales of Gaffers and Satler.

The meeting, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the Half-Way House, Pacific Coast Hwy., is open to all secretaries in the Southwest area. Reservations are being accepted by Patt Bennett, program chairman, 447-2051 or 671-8341.

Musical Farce Begins Final Performances

The final two performances of the Bay Cities Theatre Assn. production of "Finian's Rainbow" will be presented tomorrow and Saturday at Mira Costa High School.

Curtain time both nights is 8:30 p.m., and reservations are still available for both performances.

Charles Rothlein, who directs the musical, also will portray Finian McLenghan in the play. Also playing is Claude Mendell, president of the Bay Cities Theatre Assn.

Ticket information is available at 323-5296.
