HOPEFUL TARTARS . . . El Camino backfield coach Vince McCullough explains the Warrior's offensive system to four Torrance High graduates. Freshmen Clyde Taylor (18), Mike Ciecchini (26), Joe Solis (75) and sophomore Jerry McLean listen as McCullough explains ECC will use more of a ball-control offense than in past seasons. Taylor's brother, Howard, also a Torrance High grad, starred for the Warriors in 1962.

Camino Harriers Seventh in Meet

Fighting a temperature of 100 degrees, the El Camino cross country team turned up for its conference opener with Santa Monica and Valley JC by finishing seventh in the Long Beach College Invitational meet Saturday.

The three-way meet pitting the Warriors, Corsairs and host Monarchs is slated for 2:30 p.m. tomorrow.

The Warriors racked up 100 points in the 15-team meet won by Pierce JC with 44 points. Santa Ana took second with 78 points, and Cerritos garnered third with 87 points.

KURT KLEIN, sophomore from North High, took individual honors for the Warriors, placing seventh with a time of 19 minutes for the three and a half mile course.

The next three El Camino runners, Harry Millikin, Wes Rizer and Ken Lindroth, all finished within three seconds of one another.

MILLIKAN placed 16th, in a time of 19:25; with Rizer, 17th, in 19:27 and Lindroth 18th, with a 19:28 timing.

Dave Wood and Mike Parsons both placed 42nd and 47th, respectively. Wood was clocked in 20:47 and Parsons finished with 21:10.

The winning time in the meet was an 18:01.1 turned in by San Diego's Sterling Jenkins.

Torrance Bowler Places in Classic
