Obituaries

FRANCES L. MAXWELL

Funeral services for Frances Louise Maxwell, 68, of Long Beach, will be held in Wise, Va., with Stone and Myers Mortuary in charge of local arrangements.

Mrs. Maxwell died in Torrance last Friday. She was employed as a hotel manager.

Surviving her is a brother, Aaron of Torrance.

DOLORES A. TYLER

Funeral services for Dolores Ann Tyler, 65, 832 Sartori Ave., were held at the Stone and Myers Chapel yesterday afternoon with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints serving as officiant.

Mrs. Tyler, a nurse, had lived in Torrance for 24 years. She died last Saturday.

She is survived by two sons, Hubert Tyler of Wilmington, and Bobby Lee of Torrance. Also surviving are several grandchildren.

Interment was at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Housewives' Tennis Class Set by City

Housewives will have a series of tennis instruction beginning Wednesday, Oct. 30, at El Retiro Park offered by the Torrance Recreation Department. At the same time, tiny tot classes will be offered for children three years and older.

Classes are divided with those who are just beginning at 11:30 a.m., those who have had some instruction at 10:30 a.m., and those who know how to play at 9:30 a.m. Tiny tot classes which will have rhythms, games, crafts, will meet at the same hours. The registration fee for the six-lesson series of tennis is 50 cents. There is no registration fee for the tiny tot classes.

Tennis instructors are Joan Skinner and Jean Gregory.

OPENING CAMPAIGN . . . Drive leaders for Sears and United Way mapped out plans for the fall campaign—the first under the United Way banner—at a meeting Tuesday in Sears Torrance. Shown here from left are Leonard Zumbille, manager of Sears El Monte and member of the general county board for United Way; George Gaugler, manager of Sears Torrance and Sears' Los Angeles group chairman for the drive; and Ed Rapp, assistant campaign director for United Way.

Tiny tot instructors are Lilly Lee and Georgia Powell.

For further information and to pre-register, call the Torrance Recreation Department. Space is limited in the classes and registrations are accepted on the first-come, first-served basis.

Annual Women Voters Drive Slated for Next Tuesday

The Torrance chapter of the League of Women Voters will conduct its annual one-day finance drive next Tuesday. The league has set $1,500 as the goal for the day.

The annual drive is conducted to supplement the league's income from dues in order to finance the programs which it conducts throughout the year. Recently completed projects include work on the Torrance school bonds election, candidate questionnaires for the Board of Education election, local speakers for meetings of Girl Scouts, church groups, and civic clubs, and the continuing observer program at civic meetings.

Be charitable and indulgent to every one but thyself. — Joubert.
