

Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 37) know how to word the baby announcements. Should she say "Mr. and Mrs. . . . announce the birth of . . ." or should it just be "Mrs. . . . announces . . ." since she is no longer married to him?

Please set us straight. She is deeply concerned. —NEEDING INFORMATION

Dear Needing: Under the circumstances your daughter should skip the announcements. Friends and family will not need to be informed by mail.

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I are in our middle 60's. We've both worked hard all our lives and now that we are at the stage where we could take things easier our kids won't let us. Every time we turn around somebody needs a loan. Last week our oldest son and wife came over — depressed. They are "dead tired and need a vacation," but can't afford it. Will we loan them $400 so they can go to Puerto Rico for two weeks?

They owe bills all over town yet they talk about taking a vacation on borrowed money. They still owe us $300 which they borrowed to get their furniture out of storage.

My husband says we should let them have the money or they will think we are stingy and mean. If they needed it for an emergency I would say "yes," but I don't feel that we should lend them money for a vacation. What do you say?

—STINGY AND MEAN????

Dear Mother: I say let them repay the $300 they owe you and when they can look the rest of their creditors in the eye they should save toward that vacation in Puerto Rico. It's a heavenly spot—and they ought to go—but not on your money.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Sometimes we tend to forget the benefits derived from the simplest baby-care routines. Take baby's strollering sessions. Wheeling about in the fresh air reaps wonderful rewards. It invites an appetite and sets a cheek to bloom. It jollies dispositions and makes the sandman welcome. Fresh-airing does all these things for you, too, so try not to skip these jaunts unless the weather is mean.

Fresh-air appetites appreciate the "stick-to-the-ribs" satisfaction of Gerber Strained and Junior Meats. Made from cuts selected by Armour, they're ever so easy to digest. Most important, they are cooked by an exclusive Gerber-Armour method that protects precious nutrients, preserves true-meat flavors and assures an unusually smooth, moist texture. Altogether, they're the most succulent protein foods you can give your baby to aid his growth.

In the crib. A gaily striped or colored beach towel makes a pretty and practical coverlet for baby's crib. Cheers up a room . . . is easy to wash . . . eliminates fancy ironing.

Baby basic. Baby cereals are pretty much a daily menu "must" from the infant age right through the toddler stage, for the iron and other important nutrients they supply. Gerber Baby Cereals are enriched with a special kind of iron that's easily absorbed by babies. Seven tablespoons will give your baby more than 100% of the recommended daily dietary allowance for iron. Calcium and important B-vitamins are also added for further nutritional benefits.
