Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 9

I once asked the proud father of two wonderfully adjusted children what he thought were the best guides to good parenthood. Without a moment's hesitation he said: "Patience, perception and playfulness." Nice to have a father's viewpoint and such a good one, too.

Two-way plan. Fulllest enjoyment of a baby comes when both parents share in the fun and fanfare of baby care. And the biggest rewards for dads come when they spend some time alone with their heirs or heireses. If dad's too tired at night to take over, why not plan some Saturday time for baby and dad while you have a fling at shopping or something?

Protective measures. Gerber Snap-On Cover-All Bibs provide foolproof protection from spills 'n' splashes . . . spare baby's clothes from stains. Deep pocket across bottom of bibs catches stray droplets. Adjustable neck opening allows for proper fit and growth. Under-arm snaps make them ever so easy to slip on and off.

Gerber Cover-All Bibs are made of soft, white, polyvinyl film that's machine-washable and easily wipeable. A cunning kitten and bouncy bunnies grace the bibs in pink, yellow or blue. At supermarkets everywhere.

Wise words and true from a sensible mother: "It took me a long time to realize that Laurel ate more, and with more relish, when I stopped coaxing and clock-watching and started feeding her when she indicated she was really hungry."

Invitation to delight and a bright appetite. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits are small-fry delicacies of the first order. That's because they're flash-cooked to preserve the wonderful flavors Mother Nature meant them to have. Cooking in seconds does something even more important! It helps preserve the utmost in precious vitamin values for your baby's nutritional well-being. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.
