

Government Three Ways: Which Form Do You Want?

By CHARLES E. CHAPEL, Assemblyman, 46th District
 In theory there are three forms of government advocated by Americans today. First, the "internationalists" want a "One World Government." This would make the United Nations the ruling body for the entire world, with one armed force consisting of levies conscripted upon all nations of the world, and giving every human being in the world the theoretical right to vote, whether or not he could read and write his own language.

Soviet Russia advocates this form of government and so does Soviet China. The reason that the Russian and Chinese Soviets want this is because they, together with their puppet allies, under a "one world government," could make slaves of the free world and achieve a dictatorship which would be worse than that of the Russian czars, Hitler, Mussolini, Genghis Khan, and all the other butchers in the history of the world. Do you want this form of government? I do not.

Second, there are those Americans, including an alarming number of Californians who are not ready to publicly take a stand for a "one world government," but want the Congress of the United States, aided and abetted by a "liberal" U. S. Supreme Court, to allow the President of the United States and his appointees, to over-ride the rights guaranteed the states in the U. S. Constitution.

THIS IS based upon the theory of Alexander Hamilton and is in direct opposition to the principles and teachings of Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, and Abraham Lincoln, all three of whom had faith in the ability of Americans to govern themselves.

Law In Action

Suppose your client is having a friendly Saturday night poker game with some of his friends when he hears a knock on the door. He opens it to find two policemen there.

"We hear there's gambling going on here," one of them says. "We'll have to come in and look around."

"Your client replies, "Do you have a search warrant?"

The other officer answers, "We don't need one, we're the law. We know there is a game going on here."

THOUGH YOUR client protests they push in, seize the cards, poker chips, and table stakes. They haul your client and his friends off in the paddy wagon.

Now, by gambling your client broke a California law. But as his lawyer tells him, the officers were also breaking a law. For centuries the rule has been that no one could enter your house without a search warrant, issued for probable cause on oath or evidence of a crime being committed.

Had your client allowed the officers in, their seizure of the evidence might well have been lawful. But he objected and they may have had no right to force their way in. And so you as his lawyer object to, and the court will not permit, illegally seized evidence to be used against your client.

WHAT DOES one do if he is arrested? No matter what crime your client is accused of, or how guilty he might be, he has rights under California law.

Among these are:
 1. His right against self-incrimination; he does not need to answer the questions of authorities about himself and his acts. No one can make him legally testify against himself. (The Fifth Amendment)
 Nor can he be made to produce papers, documents, or other evidence which would tend to incriminate him.

2. As we have already seen, the police cannot seize evidence without a search warrant, probable cause, or your consent to search the premises. In California the rules against illegal search and seizure have become complicated of late and results depend on the particular facts of the case. Still the prosecution cannot use evidence seized unlawfully.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Future Farmer of America membership now stands at almost 400,000, indicating that young folks are still interested in agriculture.

This second group of people believe that "Big Brother" has a plan to give them something for nothing. The plan may be called a "New Deal," a "Fair Deal," or a "New Frontier." Actually nobody gets anything for nothing.

Woodrow Wilson was elected on a promise to keep the United States out of War.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, in one of his radio addresses said that he had no intention of sending "a single American boy" to war. Harry Truman publicly deplored war, sent our armed forces into Korea, and then recalled General MacArthur, who could have won the Korean War by allowing our forces to bomb the Soviets north of the Yalu River. It is an undisputed fact that the United States was defeated in the Korean War when we could have won if Truman had not listened to the Internationalists, the United Nations workshippers, and all those people who knowingly or innocently supported the Russian Soviet propaganda line.

JOHN F. KENNEDY overlooked the Monroe Doctrine completely, permitting the Russians to take over Cuba, and has continued to make pretty speeches while the Soviets gradually increase their power all over the world. The United States pays almost all the cost of the United Nations and yet the Soviets and their allies continue to reduce the United Nations to a debating society, just as they did the League of Nations which was the pet project of Woodrow Wilson. It is unpleasant to think about, but President Kennedy is a war President, even though our current war with the Soviets is a "cold war." Do you want this kind of government? I do not.

The third form of government is that established in the Constitution of the United States. Two of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States establish the rights of states.

Article IX says: "The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people."

Article X says: "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, not prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people."

THESE TWO amendments are clear and positive and yet the Supreme Court of the United States for many years has been whittling away the rights of the states and the people in decisions which give power over our lives, our property, and our civil rights to the federal government.

This is the reason that, early in my career in the California State Legislature, I introduced a bill which became a law, and still is a law, requiring the teaching of the U. S. Constitution, U. S. History, and American ideals, in all schools public and private, in California.

 I am against Internationalism as taught by the "One World" advocates. I am against letting the Soviet-dominated United Nations ruin America, I am for genuine constitutional government. I believe most Americans and most Californians want a constitutional government, a government of laws and not a government of men. This is the true issue today. What kind of government do you want?
