

KIDNAP BREAKFAST . . . As a ways and means project for the Hickory PTA a "come-as-you-are" kidnap breakfast was staged recently at the home of Mrs. R. Anderson, ways and means chairman. Enjoying pastries and coffee are from left, Mmes. Bill Webb, Robert Morris, Richard Hill, Roger Anderson and Robert Davis. (Herald Photo)

Masquerade Party at Lamb Home

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lamb, 4326 W. 176th St., entertained members of the Torrance Fire Dept. and their wives at a masquerade Halloween party Friday evening at their home.

The family room was elaborately decorated in the Halloween motif. Dancing and traditional "spook" games were diversions for the evening, followed by a midnight supper.

Guest list for the party included Messrs. and Mmes. John Agapito, Joseph Bowen, Sam Dial, Ray Hawkes, Bill Sprankling, Sam Martin, Glenn Price, Bob Ward, Jim Waas, Jack Garland, Harlan Whitacre.

Also Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Tuttle, Jack Delsigne, Jack Mangan, Bill Stonecker, Kenneth Hall, Von Bergen, Joseph Bowen, William Disario, Fred Buckner, Ron Powers, Ray Flagg, Jay Nielson, Anthony Salce.

Others were John Millard, Florindo Panches, Albert Knappenberger and Harlan Treskes.

YW Needs Actors For Production

Torrance YWCA Little Theater Group has announced openings in the cast for "The Chaik Garden" to be presented in late January or early February. Parts to be filled are for four women, two men and a stage manager.

This group meets once a week, every Tuesday night from 7:30 until 9:30 at 2320 W. Carson St., Torrance. The Little Theater group is designed for people who are interested in participating in a worthwhile community project.

No previous acting experience is needed. Richard Grant, a graduate of the UCLA theater arts department, is the director.

Anyone wishing to participate may call the Y or attend the meeting Tuesday evening.

Northern Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson of Fern Avenue returned recently from a three weeks vacation spent in northern California. While in the north, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson visited their son, Eugene, student at Humboldt State College in Arcata.

Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 11) didn't do much for the friendship.

Dear Ann Landers: I was very much interested in the letter signed, "Keeper Of The Closet Keys." This woman wanted to know if she should tell her grown children that their father who had been dead 15 years was a scoundrel, rotten to the core, and not the fine man she had taught them to believe he was.

The reason? Well, she was having an affair with some joker who promises to marry her "when he retires" in 1966. Her children did not approve of her traveling with this man since they are not yet married. Her attitude was, "Why should they criticize me when I protected their father's reputation for so many years. I'm an angel compared with what he was."

I have some news for the foolish woman. Discrediting her dead husband in the eyes of his children won't make her look one bit better. And, furthermore, this guy won't marry her in 1966 or 1976 either. — WISER NOW

Dear Now: Thanks for writing. I hope "Keeper" sees your letter. She should throw those keys in the lake and forget where that door is.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) -548, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.

Y-Wives to Tour Pottery Plant

Y-Wives of the Torrance YWCA will meet Tuesday morning at the Y for a members' tea, to be followed by a tour of the Poppytrail Pottery plant in Torrance.

The Y-Wives entertained their husbands and friends with a buffet dinner and dance at the Fred Astaire Studio Saturday evening. Mrs. Dan Marsh, social chairman, awarded prizes for the best costumes and Mrs. Bill Hamilton was in charge of the decorations.

Dinner Party

Enjoying dinner with friends recently at the Dominguez Golf Course Restaurant were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tanner, well known in Torrance. They dined after a day of sailing at the new California Yacht Club in Marina Del Rey.

FLAVIAN GONE NAVY . . . The yearly PTA carnival at Flavian School has taken on a nautical air this year and has been tagged "Flavian's Fall Regatta." The event, to be held Nov. 2 on the school grounds will open at 10 a.m. and continue until 6 p.m. A "PX" will be stocked with foods of all kinds and there will be game booths. Tom Hatten will perform two shows. Sailorettes ready for the Regatta are, front, Sharene Cairns and Irene Jolley, center, Linda Thomas and Holly Febles and top, Jannis Hibberts. The public is invited. (Herald Photo)

Gamma Psi Rush Party

Gamma Psi Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority held its final rushing event of the season prior to the Preferential Tea.

The affair was a patio party in the recreation hall at the trailer court of Mr. and Mrs. Tex Moore in Torrance. A buffet supper, planned by the social committee, was followed by games. An anniversary cake was served as a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Wilton LeBlanc of Torrance, who were celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary.

Guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Bob Mills, Leonard Freeman, Cliff Evans, and Bob Alvey.

Royal Neighbor Dance Tuesday

Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, will sponsor a dance Tuesday evening at the Torrance Woman's club, 1422 Engracia Ave. The dance will be preceded by a pot luck supper at 6 p.m. The Sundowners of which Mrs. George Walker of Torrance is pianist, will furnish the music for dancing.

TALENT AND STRENGTH . . . Game booths with fun for all ages will highlight the Hillside School PTA Carnival on Nov. 2 beginning at noon and continuing until 4 p.m. Demonstrating one of the games, are, from left, Mrs. Guy Gates swinging the sponge to hit Mrs. Tony Santaella, who poses as the strong man. John McGee, principal, looks on. Cartoon, movies, a country store and all kinds of food booths will be available to carnival goers. (Herald Photo)

PTA

The

Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Perry Baker

FLAVIAN
Flavian PTA met on Thursday, Oct. 17. At this Father-Son program, guest speaker was Capt. James H. Marshall of the Air Force Space Systems division, who showed a color film depicting some of the more significant highlights of the space program.

Announcement was made of the upcoming Fall Regatta to be held on the school grounds Nov. 2 from 10:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. Special attraction will be Tom Hatten, who will give two shows, 11 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. The North High Clown Club will be on hand to entertain. There will be many games, prizes and good things to eat. Baby-sitting is available and for the teenagers the Playboy Combo from West High will provide music for dancing during the afternoon. Everyone is welcome.

The next board meeting will be held on Thursday, Nov. 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the school home economics room.

CRENSHAW
The theme of "Crenshaw PTA Hungry Hounds" was used in this year's membership drive and its close found each "long" Hound well fed indeed. Mrs. Dave Pierson, membership chairman, reports that a minimum of 100 per cent was reached in all classes and as a reward, every child at Crenshaw School will be treated to a free movie, to be shown the first part of November. There are 501 members from a student body of 761.

The October association meeting provided something a bit different in the way of entertainment. A group from the Recreation Department Footlight Theatre presented a one-act play titled "Ladies in Retirement."

The "Hawaiian Holiday Carnival" was enjoyed by all. A dinner of Hawaiian sweet and sour pork and chicken, a Kau Hale (hot dog stand) and taco lani were featured. The Island Trading Post, the North High School clowns, the Disney cartoon "Hawaiian Holiday" sketches by Bub Thomas and the Treasure Hut were the main attractions.

YUKON
Yukon Elementary PTA's Oct. 17 meeting featured the theme "Money Matters." The speaker was Cyrus Phillips of the Bank of America, his topic "Looking at Money with Interest." The flag salute was led by a Pop Warner team. Hostesses for the evening were rooms 13 and 14. Featured chairmen were Mrs. Donald Brown, magazines, and Mrs. Raymond Staley, room representative.

Mrs. John Mathews, president, ratified these chairmen at the October board meeting; Mrs. J. B. Holcombe, hospitality; Mrs. Jack Levy, ways and means; Mrs. Kenneth Monahan, parent education; and Mrs. Fred Bennett, special education.

LINCOLN
Lincoln Elementary School's PTA president, Mrs. Andrew Foster was greeted with a "full house" on her first association meeting in the school cafeteria on Oct. 10. The theme for the evening was "It's Fun Getting Acquainted." Ernest Thom, principal, was introduced by Mrs. Foster, who in turn introduced the faculty members. Introduction of PTA officers and chairmen followed.

Featured chairmen were Mrs. A. C. Bongiorno, membership; Mrs. R. deLeon, citizenship, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pitts, ways and means. Inspiration chairman, Mr. Warren Kaufman, who attended the Men's Fellowship Conference in Norwalk recently, gave a short resume on the meeting's agenda, "Role of the Men in PTA."

Music was presented by the Lincoln Choral Group directed by Mrs. Barbara Booth and the school orchestra under the direction of Milton Marcus.

HICKORY
Hickory held its first PTA association meeting on Oct. 16. PTA fathers were the honored guests for the evening and were well represented in the large attendance. Speaker was Dr. Fitzhugh Dodson, Child Psychologist, whose topic was "How to Raise Your Children Without Going Nuts."

A Mothersinger group has been organized with Mrs. Charles Sheetz as chairman. The group will meet every Friday morning in the music room at 10 a.m. All mothers, who like to sing, are invited to join.

PTA

SOUTHWEST
Southwest PTA of Oral Education held its first regular meeting of the year Oct. 18 at the William Anderson School. The teachers of the deaf and hard of hearing were present as well as a large number of parents.

Newly-elected officers presiding were Bernard Janda, president; Carin Packard, vice president; Fran Schwan, secretary; Jack Collar, treasurer; Mrs. Winona Murray, faculty advisor; Kay Walsh, hospital-ity chairman, and Patsy Bondenox, deaf and hard of hearing representative.

Mrs. Virginia Brown of the Cooperative Special Education program gave an informative resume of their work and answered questions of the parents.

George Niederman, principal, spoke on the increasing enrollment at the school.

Discussed also was the Halloween picnic to be held today at 1 p.m. at 139th Street and Prairie Park.

A social hour was held during which refreshments were served.

Cardinal's Yule Party Set Dec. 15

The annual Christmas party for children, sponsored by His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, will be held in the Beverly Hilton International Room on Sunday, Dec. 15, 2 to 4 p.m.

More than 200 tots from orphanages, nurseries and Catholic foster homes will be Cardinal McIntyre's special guests.

Invitations to patrons and co-sponsoring organizations are now in the mail, according to Very Rev. Msgr. William R. Johnson, coordinator.

It is through their generosity that the party's full purpose is achieved — that of providing a more joyful Christmas for families and individuals not receiving care from other agencies. Proceeds of the party go to this purpose.

Last year the Cardinal's Christmas Giving Program benefited 14,107 adults and children throughout Los Angeles, Orange, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties.

The Little Sisters of the Poor, Catholic Youth Organization, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Rancho San Antonio, Junipero Serra Boys Club and Jeanne d'Arc Hall also were aided.

Contributions may be sent to the Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children, 1400 W. Ninth St., Los Angeles 15. Donors will be acknowledged in the party program. All donations are tax deductible.

Honor Couple

Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula was the scene of a seafood dinner party given by Mrs. and Mrs. Donald "Tato" Stoy of Torrance for their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krakower of Lakewood, who were celebrating their 17th wedding anniversary.

For a Very Special kind of Woman

Zeigler's just for a very special kind of woman... the woman who's concerned enough about her appearance to want to give her face the best possible care.

For the Zeigler Facial Exerciser is a highly-specialized electronic unit, developed under medical supervision, only after years of careful research. Delicately sensitive, it gently exercises facial muscles and helps to stimulate facial circulation. Again and again, its regular use has proved its effectiveness to many discriminating women... lifting sagging facial contours resulting from the normal processes of aging... diminishing fine lines and fine wrinkles.

If you're a woman who really cares about her facial appearance, don't wait another day to see for yourself what Zeigler can do. For a free demonstration in your home without obligation, call 320-2631, or write:

Zeigler
TORRANCE STUDIO
1624 Gramercy, Torrance

MOVING..!

Welcome Wagon
International

Call
DORIS STAMM
DA 7-9193

SPECIAL!

TUESDAY THRU THURSDAY
CLAIROL TINTS $6.00
With SHAMPOO and SET

TUESDAY THRU THURSDAY
Complete Permanents . . 7.00
TINTED . . . $9.00

KINGS SALON OF BEAUTY

22828 SO. WESTERN PHONE 326-9694

COSTUMES FOR RENT

FOR HALLOWEEN

Roaring 20's — Blazers — Flappers — Gay 90's —
Gamblers — Spanish — Old-fashioned Bathing Suits —
Southern Belle — Cap-Can — Indians — Western —
Orientals — Gypsy — Harem — Bum — and miscellaneous
Animal Costumes.

MANY NEW COSTUMES THIS YEAR

PRICE—$4 TO $15 RENTAL
Open each night until 8:00 p.m. until Nov. 1st.
Come In — Pick Out Your Costume Early!

Costume Rental Shop

800 W. Pacific Coast Hwy.
Long Beach, California
Phone 436-5959

PLENTY OF FREE PARKING