Halloween Fun Set in City Parks

Spooks and goblins will be on hand at McMaster and La Romeria Park tonight, according to Harry Van Bellehem, director of recreation at the Torrance Recreation Department.

McMaster Park, 3624 Artesia Blvd., is planning a Halloween party with the following schedule: afternoon program from 3:30 to 5 p.m. for boys and girls 1 to 5 years old, to include Halloween games, puppet show, costume parade, and refreshments; evening program from 6:30 to 10 p.m. for boys and girls of all ages, to include a costume parade starting at 7 p.m. and movies, greased pole, carnival booths, and refreshments.

The above program will be co-sponsored by the North Torrance Civic Assn., Pilot Club, Park Mothers' Club, and the Optimist Club of North Torrance.

La Romeria Park, Inglewood and Darien, will present a family night starting with a treasure hunt at 4:30 p.m.; costume parade at 5 p.m.; greased pole climb for $5 prize, fortune telling for one penny at 5 p.m.; spook house guided tour through haunted house at 6 p.m.; six game booths and one food booth opening at 6:30 p.m.; and the special event at 8 p.m. will be a drawing for homemade pumpkin pies.

Army Pvt. Lynn A. Holcombe, whose father, Ralph A. Holcombe, lives at 1613 W. 227th St., completed advanced training at Ft. Hood Tex., Oct. 19.

Realty Board Offers Seminar Here Friday

Geneva Meara recently appointed chairman of the educational committee of the Torrance Real Estate Board of Realtors, announced that the first in a series of educational seminars will be presented Friday at the board's headquarters.

The all day session starting at 9 a.m. will include speakers of university level. Dr. Taylor W. Melon, University of Southern California, will deliver the keynote address. Others are Scott Price, vice president of the Manufacturers Bank of Los Angeles and head of the Real Estate Loan Department. Scott teaches UCLA extension courses on financing and is author of a textbook on real estate financing being used by UCLA.

ATTORNEY Lawrence Lackman, teacher of legal aspects at Long Beach City College, is a member of the Long Beach Bar, California Bar, and American Bar Assns. He is also a member of insurance and negligence sections as well as probate and real property sections. He is the attorney for the Long Beach District Board of Rentlors, and is legal representative of the Apartment Owners Assn. His subject will be "Legal Aspects of Real Estate."

James McMichael, nationally known realtor and organizer and chapter member of the Certified Property Exchangers, teaches UCLA extension courses on income tax aspects and real estate transactions.

PHILLIP YEAGER, president of the Covina Real Estate Corp., teaches real estate brokerage and administration for UCLA extension. Yeager is a graduate of Claremont Men's College and did post graduate work at Ohio State University. His subject will be "Planning Your Real Estate Operation."

Introducing the speakers will be Delbert Vaughn, CREA's 21st District vice president.

Goldwater Group Sets Dance Date

South Bay chapter of the Californians for Goldwater will hold a dinner-dance to raise funds for the Goldwater Headquarters to be opened in Torrance. The dinner-dance will be at the Eagles Hall, 128 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach, at 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 16.

A speaker will be selected by the group for the evening. A spaghetti dinner will be served and music will be played by an eight-piece band. Door prizes will be awarded at the end of the evening.

Tickets, which are priced at $2.50 per person, may be reserved by calling FA 8-1666 or FR 1-3680.

GENEVA MEARA Announces Seminar

Church Dinner Marks Start of Building Drive

More than 400 persons are expected to gather Saturday evening at the First Christian Church, Maple Street and Eldorado, for the all-church information dinner. The dinner will mark the beginning of a drive for $185,000 to complete the First Lutheran Church building program.

John P. Schwartz, chairman of the canvass committee, said the dinner will mark the beginning of the every-member visitation program. The full plan will be explained to members and friends of the church.
