Winter Wonderland Theme

Bazaar at Methodist Church Slated Dec. 7

"Winter Wonderland" Christmas Bazaar, staged annually by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, Mrs. Carl Kildoo president, will be held this year on Dec. 7 at the church. Mrs. Robert Scarborough is serving as general chairman of the bazaar.

When the doors open at 11 a.m. a day filled with fun, contests, delicious foods and other attractions will begin for all ages, from the very young to the elderly.

With the gift-giving season just around the corner booths will be filled with handsewn gift items, Christmas decorations, homemade candles, cookies and other holiday items. There will also be a white elephant booth.

Supervised games for children will be played throughout the day and Santa Claus will be present during the afternoon. There will also be a photographer on hand to take pictures of children with Santa Claus.

From 11 a.m. a luncheon featuring homemade soups, sandwiches and desserts will be served to the public by the Priscilla circle under the leadership of Mrs. William Stoltz.

Beginning at 5 p.m. and serving until 7 p.m. members of the Suzanna circle, directed by Mrs. James McClure, will serve a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Reservations are not necessary and residents are invited to attend and may secure tickets at the door.

Women of the church will compete in a cake contest offering their best recipes. The cakes will be judged for first, second and third place and will later be offered for sale.

Another attraction will be the cook-off in which boys and girls of school age will participate. They will enter their own favorite salads, main dishes, and desserts in competition. A panel of judges will be on hand to judge and award prizes.

All organizations of the church will assist with the event to which the public is invited.

Art Program Planned for Local Club

"Artistry in Flowers and Gifts" will be the theme of the program to be presented for the Torrance Woman's Club at its meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

Demonstrations in floral arrangements and artistic gift wrapping will be presented by "The Girls," Mary Ann and Jeannette, owners of a new flower and gift firm in Redondo.

The business meeting at 1 p.m. will be conducted by Mrs. J. G. Louvier, president.

The program will be followed by a silver tea under the chairmanship of Mrs. W. C. Moyer. She will be assisted by Mrs. Donald P. LeGalley and Mrs. D. P. Quilvan. Also serving on the tea committee will be the club's new members.

Tahoe Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Elles E. Cook, Fern Ave., have returned from several days vacation at Lake Tahoe.

PREPARE FOR THANKSGIVING . . . Senior Citizens of the Adult Center, Torrance Recreation Dept., will stage their annual Thanksgiving Dinner on Nov. 16 at the center. The club will furnish the meat and beverage and members and guests attending will bring a potluck dish. Testing a dish they will furnish for the dinner are from left, Mrs. Fannie Tarpley, Mel Wagers tasting, Mrs. Carrie Fisher and Mrs. Maude Jepsen. The Thanksgiving dinner is always one of the highlights of the year for the Adult Club. (Herald Photo)

Reservations Open For Annual Fashion Event

Mrs. Richard Tracy, general chairman of the St. Philomena Women's Council Fashion show, announces the opening of reservations for this year's event "Portraits of Elegance." The annual luncheon and fashion parade will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 20, at the Cockatoo Inn, Imperial and Hawthorne Blvd. at 12 noon.

A collection of new fall and winter fashions from a Torrance shop will be shown. Mrs. John Marsin will serve as commentator.

The fashion board also includes Mrs. Giagio Cannistraci, coordinator, and Mrs. Don Mead, art director.

Awards, table favors, tickets, reservations and hospitality will be handled by Mmes. Dale Thompson, Don Faye, Charles Davis, George Elftman, Joseph LeClair, Allan Molgaard, Edward Kollmeyer, John Scanlin and James Donovan.

Reservations may be made by contacting any member of the Women's Council or by calling Mrs. Joseph Kalano or Mrs. Samuel Consalvo, reservations chairmen for the affair.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Gerald Dix was hostess to her bridge club Monday afternoon at her Rolling Hills home.

A luncheon was served, followed by an afternoon of cards.

Mrs. Dix's guests were Mmes. B. T. Whitney, Ralph McNeil, Emma Roberts, Alma Smith, Laura Felker, William Crooker, and Delbert Thomson.

Mrs. Felker will be the club's next hostess at her Palos Verdes home.

CDA Court Reception Set For New Members

Plans are well underway for a formal reception for new members by Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America. The annual affair will be held Thursday evening, Nov. 21 at 8 p.m. in the Nativity Parish Annex.

Mrs. Harvey Lee, grand regent, and all court officers will form the receiving line. They will wear white formal gowns and each will wear her respective robe symbolic of the office she holds.

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, district deputy for Court St. Catherine will be the presiding officer. Mrs. Muzik, member of the Court Our Lady of Victory, Redondo, will explain the various court functions, colors and symbols to the new members.

Mrs. Richard Ban, extension chairman, has several applications from prospective new members and will be accepting applications through Wednesday. Anyone, over 18 and a practicing Catholic, is eligible for membership and may contact Mrs. Ban or any court member.

Court officers will preside at the silver coffee and tea services. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Laurence Derouin and her committee including Mmes F. C. Rick, Robert Snudden, William Hardesty, Alfred Kitto, Frank Forester, Helen Bishop, Leonard Reid, Lyle O'Hara, Thomas Moore and Misses Kathryn and Felice Shaughnessy and Grace Young.

Moudys Home From Mexico

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Moudy, 3201 W. 179th St. returned recently from a two weeks vacation in Mexico. The Moudys joined a Douglas tour flying to Mexico City. After visiting places of interest in the capital and surrounding areas, the group flew to Acapulco where they spent several days before returning home.

At Philharmonic

Mrs. Emma Roberts, Mrs. Ralph McNeil, and Mrs. Gerald Witt had lunch at the Eiltmore on Wednesday afternoon prior to going to the Philharmonic where they saw the production "Zenda."

Forseth-Lunebring Vows Read in Lutheran Rite

Good Shepherd Lutheran Church was the scene of eight o'clock wedding ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 28, in which Miss Sharon Dianne Forseth, 934 Gastine Ave., became the bride of William R. Lunebring. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. William Lunebring of Sunset Beach.

Rev. H. L. Peterson officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Peterson played the nuptial music. Wallace Carr was soloist.

For the candlelight ceremony, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin P. Forseth, wore a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace. Lace appliques studded with pearls enhanced the bouffant skirt which was caught in bustle effect at the back and fell into a chapel train. Her illusion veil was secured by a tiara of pearls and crystals. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of butterfly orchids, orange blossoms carnations and ivy leaves.

Mrs. Lucille Ackerson was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mmes. Michel Hamel, Donald Knight and Miss Mary Stanovich. All of the attendants wore lavender peau de sole and carried white carnations.

Thomas LeFort was best man and ushers were Steve Russak, Jack Ackerman and Howard Jordan.

A reception at the Assistance League was attended by the 150 guests who were registered by Mrs. Faye McDaniel.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Carmel and San Francisco. The new home is in Wilmington.

The bride, a 1961 graduate of Narbonne High, is employed by the May Co. Her husband attended Narbonne. He is an employee of the Ray Brothers Oil Co.

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

'Some People Get Lumps Hard Way . . .

Dear Ann Landers: Last June our son went with the rest of his senior high school class on a trip to Upper Michigan. On the trip Irving met a girl from a Detroit high school. She gave him a line about how she had fallen in love him at first sight and that he was the nicest, most attractive, most fascinating fellow she had ever met.

When Irving got home he was in a daze—bumping into doors, hearing his name called—and so on. He told me he was in love and this was the only girl in the whole world for him.

Irving has since written her twelve letters and she has not answered one. He even wrote to her parents telling them how lovely she is. Now he wants to go to Detroit to see her. All he has is her address. I'm afraid he will get lost because he has never been out of Flint alone. Should we let him go and get lost or what? He has a job and has saved his own money. Please advise at once. —BESIDE MYSELF

Dear Beside: Let him go. Some people must get their lumps the hard way. The girl will probably tell Irving to get lost but a high school graduate should be able to find his way back to Flint from Detroit.

When the boy returns don't ask him a single question. He'll appreciate your leaving him alone.

Dear Ann Landers: My uncle and aunt are both in their middle 60's. Uncle Alf retired two years ago. They are not poor people, Ann, in fact they are better off than most of the family. The first thing they did was sell their home and move into a one-room apartment. They've been at home exactly seven weeks out of the last two years. The rest of the time they have mooched off relatives.

Everyone in the family is sick of their sponging. Their only expenses are gas and oil. They never bought a pound of hamburger or an orange. Not once have they (Continued on Page 10)
