New Catering Manager at Pen & Quill

Appointment of Vito Quaresima as the new catering manager at the Pen & Quill Hotel in Manhattan Beach is announced by Robert Reuben, president of the luxurious 200-room establishment.

With an extensive background in food and beverage and hotel management, particularly in Europe where catering is traditionally an art, Quaresima will be in charge of all private party and banquet arrangements at the Pen & Quill. He will handle reservations, supervise service and all sundry details required for functions both small and large.

Quaresima was awarded his diploma from the Hotel Management Academy in Salerno, Italy. Before coming to this country, he served with distinction at major hotels in France, Switzerland, Denmark, Belgium, and Austria. He has also held important catering

NEW POST . . . Archie K. Beard, veteran of 16 years with Turco Products, Inc., 24660 S. Main St., has been appointed vice president of marketing for the firm. He began as a process engineer, advanced to district manager and then regional manager and divisional manager. He has been general sales manager for more than six years.

Club Bulletin Inaugurated

Sol Alexander spoke on Mexican Revolutionary Coinage at a recent meeting of the Torrance Coin Club. At the organization's next meeting, April 16, Kenneth Young will speak on Copper Coinage.

The club meets every third Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the municipal recreation center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

At the club's last meeting a copy of Torracoin, the club's new monthly bulletin, was displayed and the editor, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodson introduced. The bulletin will replace a and managerial posts in the U. S. at the Wilton Hotel and Breakers International in Long Beach, the Belmont Plaza and the Stork Club in New York and the Statler-Hilton in Washington, D. C.

General manager and vice president of the Pen & Quill Hotel is Neil R. Messick.

A BIG IDEA . . . Bob Smith (right) of Torrance, emcee for the television show, "You and Your Big Ideas," looks on as Ermal Frazee shows Robin Lynn Smith, 3507 W. 227th Place, how his tear-open can lid works. Frazee flew here from Detroit recently to present his new tab lid on the show, aired each Sunday evening from 8:30 to 9 on KTTV (11). Guests show their inventions to a panel of experts who evaluate and offer suggestions to the inventors.
