Judge MacFaden to Be Inducted In Ceremonies in Los Angeles

Judge William E. MacFaden, who has recently been elevated by Gov. Edmund G. Brown from the Municipal Court, South Bay Judicial District, to the Los Angeles County Superior Court, will be formally inducted into office at 1 p.m. on Friday in Department 1 of the Superior Court, Room 222 County Courthouse.

Comb, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California, will administer the formal oath of office and be the guest speaker. Judge Harold P. Huis, chairman of the Historical Events Committee, is in charge of the program. Presiding Judge McIntyre Faries will preside during the ceremony. The following will extend greetings to the new Judge on behalf of their respective organizations: William P. Gray, president, State Bar of California; Maynard Toll, president, Los Angeles County Bar Assn.; Monte Catterlin, president, South Bay District Bar Assn., and Sigurd Murphy, president, Lawyers' Club.

Judge MacFaden has been assigned by the Presiding Judge to a civil trial department in the Central District.

College Site Strategy to Be Formulated

County supervisors and city officials of Southwest and South Bay cities are being invited to a meeting Tuesday, April 16, where plans will be discussed on how to oppose the proposed South Bay State College being built on the Fox Hills Country Club site.

The session is scheduled for 12:15 p.m. at the Redondo Beach Elks Lodge, 315 Esplanade.

"This meeting is a must because if we are to win this battle we have to pull together and have a planned attack. Our opposition is well organized. So must we be," John P. Burch, Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce president, said in announcing the meeting.

Invitations to the meeting have been sent to city hall and chamber of commerce officials of Torrance, Gardena, Palos Verdes Estates, Redondo Beach, Rolling Hills, Rolling Hills Estates, Manhattan Beach, Lawndale, Hermosa Beach, Hawthorne and El Segundo.

Take Bank Course

Lloyd A. Henderson, 17702 Crenshaw Blvd., and Ann Rumbaugh, 20931 Felker Dr., have completed Pacific State Bank's "Community College of Banking" conducted at the main office in Los Angeles.

Achievement Certificates were presented upon completion of the course which is designed to assist laymen in understanding banking procedures and personal finances.

Tomorrow

1 out of every 94 employees in California will head for work on a telephone job

Some 68,000 Californians, like Operator Vivian Coleman (below), now make their living from Pacific Telephone jobs. And as this number has increased to meet California's growing telephone needs, the payroll they put to work throughout the State has grown larger, too. (1962 total: $426 million.) Yet phone rates in California are among the lowest in the country.
