I'm upset over this and would like your advice on how to handle it. Thank you in advance.—PRESSING FOR A SOLUTION
Dear Pressing: Even if you are a slow ironer you can iron a white shirt in 15 minutes. It costs 1½ cents per hour to operate an electric iron. This means you are killing the lady's electric bill by 6 cents a month.
The next time you pay the rent, put 6 cents in an envelope with a little note explaining that you insist on paying for the extra juice.
Dear Ann Landers: I was a psychology major in college and prided myself on being able to work out most of my problems in a mature, adult manner. My "mature, adult manner" somehow has deserted me.
Henry, my 16-year-old brother, was made a ward of the state because my parents were unable to handle him. My father is an alcoholic and my mother is a neurotic with an uncontrollable temper.

When I married last year I took Henry into our home. My husband and I were appointed his legal guardians by the court. The boy has shown remarkable progress. He is friendly, cooperative and does better in school.
My mother, seeing the vast improvement, insists that we give him back. I wouldn't consider it and legally she can't take him. I've told her this repeatedly but she keeps harping. Henry hates living in her home and is frightened to death of her. Whenever she comes over he has a "relapse."
What shall I do?—SISTER
Dear Sister: Visit your mother in HER home. Tell her she cannot come to yours. Henry is fighting a tough battle and it's obvious that his mother's presence makes him ill. This may seem cruel but it is essential for the boy's recovery. Let's hope your mother will come to understand why.

CDA Court Lists Winners in Poetry

Winners in the annual Poetry Contest for Nativity school children, sponsored by the Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, were announced this week by Mrs. Harry Hamilton, contest chairman.
Poems, all with a religious theme, were judged in two divisions, with awards made accordingly.
Winners in the first division, including fourth, fifth and sixth grades, were Martha Lee Junior, sixth grader, whose poem was titled "The Greatest Day," first place; Dennis Gallo, fifth grader, "Where is Heaven?," second place; Paul Dugan, sixth grader, "Infant Jesus," third place.
In the second division, including seventh and eighth grades, Robert Erickson's "Sing a Song of Gratitude" won first place; Kathleen Harvey's "Death and Life," second place; and Frances Severin's "All This and More Too" was awarded third place.
The awards will be presented to the local winners at the regular monthly meeting of Court St. Catherine on April 4. The poems will then be sent to the State Court of California to be judged on a statewide level.
