

Thinclads Run in Annual Inglewood Relays

Breaking from Bay and Pioneer league track competition, teams from North, South, and West will be entered today and tomorrow in the annual Inglewood Relays at Sentinel Field.

Bee and Cee field event finals will be held at 3 this afternoon while the varsity field event men qualify for tomorrow's meet. Tomorrow at 7:30 p.m., the running finals will be held in all three divisions and field event championships will be decided in the varsity.

Santa Monica, perennial Bay League powerhouse and Mira Costa Relay varsity champion, will again top the field Samohi will be gunning for the all-division title carried away by Palos Verdes at Mira Costa.

Torrance High, the only local school to earn a first place at Mira Costa, will not be entered at Inglewood. Tartar coach Joe Sarthou prefers to pass up the annual event for other relay meets. Torrance schools may enter only four relay events a year, according to Sarthou.

Instead, the Tartars will meet El Segundo in a Pioneer league encounter at 3 p.m. tomorrow on the West High track.

Only South coach Dick Scully harbors a hope for a victory in a varsity event. Scully feels his two-mile relay team of Steve Gibson, Doug Hall, Steve Donohue and Bruce Hamilton have a chance for a win.

The Spartan varsity four-man 480-yard low hurdle team is also in the running for top honors. Chuck Hanson, Mike Baltad, Bob Dobie, and Bob Palmer finished second to Santa Monica at Mira Costa, but do not appear to be able to knock over the Viking hurdle crew.

In the Bee division, Scully will enter Alan Crdibring, Gary Snellgrove, Bill Pollick, and Scott Smith in the 480-yard low hurdle chase.

Brian Moeck, Smith, Ron Marra and Randy Siller will run in the Bee mile relay. In the Bee 440-yard relay, South will go with Marra, Siller, Cridbring, and Richard Gean.

Mark Fletcher, Barry Rathin, Wes Fox, and Bob Johnson, running in the 440-yard relay, hold the best hope of a high finish for the South Cee squad.

North boss Howard Smith anticipates a high finish from his pole vault squad of Dave Hubert, Gary Barron, and Dorian Hannah. Hannah has a best of 12-6, while Barron has cleared 12 feet, and Hubert has gone over at 10-6.

The Saxon trio finished second by a foot to Morn- inside in the Micohi Relays.

A quartet of Pete Molina, Bruce Allan, Alan Johnson and Pete Sepulveda or Norm Sanwo will run in the 440 and 880-yard relays for North. Sepulveda, nursing an injured leg, will possibly be replaced by Sanwo.

In the Cee division, Smith feels his mile relay team of Tom Foley, Jim Reise, Tom Sherlock, and Gordon McBath will pick up points. The quartet nabbed a third at Mira Costa.

West coach Bob Hottel will place his top men in the Bee division in an attempt to nab points. The pole vault squad of Steve McConathy, Don Crane, and Mike McMurray should finish high. McConathy has cleared 10-9, Crane has gone over at 10-6, and McMurray holds the school record at 11-3.

Ron Pettigrew, Tom Jurco, Ralph Armstrong, and Dave Graham will run in the mile relay for the Warriors.

Tartar 9 Remains in Contention

DROPS TIGHT NOD . . . Sophomore pitcher John Marsden threw a five-hitter at Torrance on Tuesday but was backed up by only three hits and went down to a 1-0 defeat. The West chucker now has a 3-2 record against Pioneer League opposition. In the first round of competition, Marsden threw a one-hitter against Torrance as he earned a 6-0 win. IGNORES REPUTATION . . . Don Coil ignored the reputation of West hurler John Marsden on Tuesday as he pitched his Torrance teammates to a 1-0 Pioneer League baseball victory, keeping the Tartars in contention for the crown. Coil allowed but three hits as he whiffed 11 men. He is currently averaging almost two strikeouts per inning in loop play.

Coil Silences Warrior Bats

Taking the thunder away from West's highly-touted mound ace John Marsden, Torrance pitcher Don Coil fast-balled a three-hitter Tuesday to keep the Tartars in Pioneer League baseball contention.

Coil, the unsung workhorse of coach Erv Kasten's hill staff, sent 11 men down swinging as Torrance picked up a 1-0 victory over West and remained in a second place tie with Palos Verdes.

Marsden, a sophomore phenomenon, has two one-hitters and a two-hitter to his credit this year. When the two clubs met earlier this season, the hard-throwing right-hander gave up only one hit on his way to a 6-0 triumph.

ALTHOUGH he walked only one man and hit one batter, it was not Coil's finest performance of the season. He has a one-hit, 15 strike-out performance against Lennox to his credit, and has 62 strikeouts on his record for 36 innings pitched this year.

Victory boosted Torrance's record to 6-2-1 while West dropped to 4-4. Aviation sits on top of the circuit with an 8-1 mark.

IN CONTRAST to Coil, Marsden gave up five hits, walked four and struck out three in six innings of work. The lone tally of the contest came in the second stanza when catcher Steve Waters singled and first sacker Rod White drove him across with a scorching double into distant left centerfield. Pulling out of a hitting slump, Waters collected two of the five Tartar bingles.

TODAY at 3 p.m., Torrance will trek to Palos Verdes for another crucial engagement. When the two nines met earlier, they battled to a 3-3 eight-inning deadlock.

Coach Kasten will either go with Mike Blankenship or Bob Battaglia on the mound. Blankenship has been out with a cold.

SUDDENLY slumping West will tangle with Aviation today on the Falcon diamond. West mentor Max Lomas will send freshman Dave LaRoche to the hill. LaRoche has a 0-2 record with losses to El Segundo and Culver City.

Olymps Lengthen NHS Loss Skein

What North High would give for a couple of extra base hits. On Tuesday, the once highly rated Saxons suffered another setback, dropping a 5-0 Bay League baseball nod to Leuzinger, picking up only two hits in the process.

Leuzinger's Jack Warner shut out North and pushed the Saxon mark to 1-5 against league opposition. The Olympians now stand at 6-2.

AT THE beginning of the season, North appeared to be the equal of any circuit foe, but lack of hitting has stopped new coach Mel Nygren's men cold. As a team, the Saxons are hitting at a .111 clip.

Once again a top hurling performance went down the drain for North. Southpaw Jay Baker allowed but six hits and yet drew the defeat. Baker held Leuzinger scoreless until the bottom of the fifth when the Olymps took advantage of a walk, a hit batter and a triple to open the way for a four-run surge.

ONLY BRENT Nickoloff and Norm Dow were able to hit for North. Both collected singles. Warner matched the entire Saxon offensive by going two for two at the dish in leading his Leuzinger teammates back into league title contention.

CAREY HUBERT will receive the mound nod today against Inglewood at 3 p.m. on the Sentinel diamond. When the clubs met in the first round, North posted an easy 17-1 win, but as Nygren says, "that was a long time ago." Jim Jensen gained the win against Inglewood.

South Rally Dumps Redondo

Charging back from a 25-point deficit, South High rallied to pull out a tingling 52½-52½ Bay League track triumph over Redondo on Monday.

After the 440 South trailed Redondo by 25 points and came back to pull what Spartan coach Dick Scully called, "my biggest come from behind ever."

The meet, originally scheduled for Friday, was rained out and had to be re-scheduled for Monday. It was in preparation for today's and tomorrow's Inglewood Relays in which both teams will compete.

SOUTH SEWED UP the win in the final relay as Ron Marra, Bob Palmer, Bob Dobie and Jeff Fleener combined for a 1:36.0 clocking in a fierce wind to streak across the tape six yards in front.

The Spartans swept all three divisions, earning a 55-42 win in the Bees and a 54-32 triumph in the Cees.

SHS TOOK the win despite the absence of four top stars. Hurdler-sprinter Chuck Hanson was missing with two injured knees, sprinter Lance Bennett was out with a pulled muscle, and distancemen Steve Garner and Doug Hall were out. Garner with the mumps and Hall with a fever.

Surprising Redondo in the 220, Fleener came through with a 23.0 effort for first, followed by Randy Siller in second.

Marty Bakker threw the shot put 50-8½ for a first with John Daugherty trailing. The Spartans also picked up a first and second in the high jump as John Anderson won at 5-6, followed by Hanson.

With Bruce Hamilton gaining a first, South all but swept the mile as Dave Ledford came through with a tie for third. Dobie Ledford came through with a tie for third. Dobie earned a third in the high hurdles with a wind-aided 15.4 and a second in the 440.

IN THE 180-yard low hurdles, Palmer came up with a second place in 20.6 seconds and Mike Baltad wound up in third. Bill Pollick gave South a second in the broad jump and Anderson snared the show slot.

South took a third in the century with Marra running 10.5, gained a second in the 880 with Steve Donohue, and picked up a tie for second in the pole vault as Wayne Wells went out at 10-6.

Warrior Golfers Engage Trojans

Possessing a perfect 6-0 record and holding down the number one position in the Metropolitan Conference standings, El Camino College golfers will host USC in a practice match tomorrow at 1 p.m. on the Palos Verdes fairways.

In action last week, the Warriors collected their sixth straight 1963 Metro win without a loss by defeating Long Beach, 37-17.

The Warriors had their 14-match winning stint snapped by the USC last week as the Troy linksters downed the Tribe in a practice match.

Losing to the SC squad stopped a Warrior winning streak the Warriors began in the closing weeks of the 1962 season, when they won five straight to take the Metro golf crown.

Since their stretch drive last season, the Tribe collected four practice tilt victories and five conference wins this year plus the five 1962 triumphs for the fabulous 14.

THE TRIBE link squad, with the five 1962 wins added to its six victories this season, now has a 11-0 mark against Metro foes.

Showing over-all strength and depth, the Tribe divot-diggers defeated the Long Beach Vikings on their home course.

"THE MATCH was decided by partner contests," Coach Al Greenleaf, said. "It was a close contest in the individual matches," he added.

Low medalists for the day were Bill McCormick and John Nelson, both Long Beach linksters, shot 73's. Dennis Drury, the number three man for the Warriors, recorded a 74 for the third lowest medal score of the day.

LES WARR and Ken Ghirardi shot 78's to defeat their individual opponents.

Steve Hallberg and Drury, Dan Titus and Warr, and Larry Sprengel and Ghirardi combined to win the three double partner matches for the Warriors.
