... Ann Landers

I am deeply hurt by this and feel that his fast second marriage was a slap in the face to the memory of my beloved sister and to our family. What do you think of a woman who would marry a man so soon after his wife was buried? What do you think of a man who would do this?—BLUE GRASS HEART-ACHE

Dear Heartache: This question comes up often—and almost never is raised by the widow or widower. Usually, it is raised by a relative.

It is impossible to know what is in someone else's heart. Those five months may have been like five centuries to the one who was left. You should be happy your sister's husband is able to pick up the pieces and make a new life for himself. Don't allow your grief to blind you to the realities of life.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help for the Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Growing up is filled with exciting ups and frustrating downs.

Year-old babies are daredevil and independent one minute... shy and insecure the next, reverting to the security of mother's arms at the drop of a disappointment. Reassuring to remember that these changing moods are part of your child's development and the year-old often learns more from temporary setbacks than quick success.

When babies begin to fend for themselves, there's many a fumble 'twixt the attempt and the accomplishment. But over-helping a baby on the grow often delays self-reliance. Best way to help a do-it-yourselfer: guide only when he can't quite make it on his own.

Adventures in eating. Popular as you please with the high-chair set... that's the word on Gerber Junior Dinners. And for good reason... more ingredients, more flavor. For these toothsome combination dishes are made from vegetables, cereal and meat and seasoned with a knowing hand to suit the semi-grow-up tastes of toddlers. All processed to protect food values.

Year-end milestones. Two "giant steps" that may come around baby's first birthday and ways you can help perfect these new skills:

- When baby's babble turns to speech you can teach word meanings by pointing to objects as you talk. Gerber Cereal Boxes are good for teaching colors.
- When a rosy hand tries to make a spoon behave you can help baby's hand-to-mouth coordination with Gerber Meat Sticks or Chicken Sticks.

Just desserts. What's just about the nicest thing that could happen at the end of your baby's meal? Why, a heaping helping of one of the four Gerber Strained or Junior Desserts. Made from milk solids, egg yolks and fruits, Gerber Desserts are a pleasure personified. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Mich.
