

FLOWER ARRANGING CLASS . . . Beginning this evening at the local YWCA will be a class in flower design under the direction of Mrs. Velma Bush, known in the area as "Miss Daisy." Mrs. Bush, who received her training at El Camino, has completed eight different artificial arrangements that are on display at the YW. This class will be limited to 20 persons and those interested may call the YWCA for further information.

Local AFS Selections Announced

Torrance Chapter of the American Field Service announces the names of the semi-finalists in the American Abroad program.

Selected were Maureen Berisken and Susan Edwards, North High School; Sandra Coffee and Bill Waterman, Torrance High; Michele Sullivan, South High.

Students apply when they are juniors, at least 16 years of age, and have had two years of foreign language. They are selected on the basis of grades, personality and citizenship.

The AFS summer program enables selected Juniors to spend six weeks during the summer living with a family abroad. AFS committees have been active in more than 25 countries, acting as hosts to young Americans and finding suitable families.

These committees watch over the students while they are abroad and arrange for them to receive the full cultural and educational experiences of the countries they are visiting.

Two Events Announced By University Women

Two gatherings of major interest to Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, American Association of University Women, are on the calendar for April, the annual meeting and election, Thursday, April 18, and a dinner meeting and discussion of the United Nations on Thursday, April 25.

The annual meeting is held at 7:30 p.m., in the Palos Verdes Art Gallery. Officers, study group chairmen and special group chairmen will give their annual reports.

Officers to be elected are the following unopposed candidates: Mrs. Calvin Warfield, first vice president; Mrs. Irving C. Brown, second vice president; Mrs. James R. Britt, treasurer.

Also to be elected are delegates to the state AAUW convention, set for May 16, 17 and 18, at Disneyland Hotel. The branch will charter a bus to take members to the May 17 sessions.

Mrs. Harold O. Simar will preside at the branch meeting and explain the pros and cons of the proposed structure changes in AAUW by-laws, to be voted on at the national convention at Denver this summer. The proposed changes would reduce the areas of interest from seven to four, cultural affairs, community affairs, world affairs and educational affairs.

On April 25, the local branch will join with six other organizations in sponsoring a 7 p.m. dinner meeting at Marymount College. Featured speaker will be Dr. Frank Graham, who was the United Nations representative in the India-Pakistan dispute.

Supplementing his talk will be a panel of four speakers, with Dr. Wendell Black, president of Harbor College, as moderator. Questions from the floor will be answered.

Other organizations sponsoring the event are the San Pedro Branch, AAUW; Palos Verdes Peninsula and San Pedro chapters, American Association for United Nations; League of Women Voters of the Palos Verdes Peninsula; San Pedro United Church Women; Harbor Area YMCA.

In charge of tickets for the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch, AAUW, is Mrs. Raymond Oddone.

Couples' Club To Entertain Youth Group

The Couples' Club of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection plans a meeting centered around the young people of the church Saturday evening, April 20, at 7 p.m.

Paul Asperlin, a High Leaguer, will tell about his eight-month stay in Brazil as an American Field Service exchange student.

The High League Girls' Chorus will sing, and Naomi Rygh will entertain with piano selections.

To close the program, and with the Easter season still much in mind, there will be a devotional service—"Were You There When They Crucified My Lord?" The pianist will be Janelle Christensen; the soloist, Ellen Jensen. The following club members will participate in the skit: Gerry Jungmeyer, Ruth Hansen, Ed Brandt, Ed Burkhart, Dean Crowder, Jerry de Jonge, Wally Jungmeyer, Mel Miller and Walt Niemi.

The host committee for a potluck dinner served in the Fireside Room will be Messrs. and Meses. Don Hansen, Melville Miller and Gerald Christensen.
