

Evangelist Ken Poure To Lead Revival Meet

Evangelist Ken Poure of Long Beach will be speaker for Wilmington Grace Baptist Church's revival meetings, which will start Sunday at the 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services and continue through Sunday, May 12. Weeknight services will be at 7:30 p.m. No meeting is set for Saturday, May 11.

Varied background of young Evangelist Poure, director of Accent Crusades, Inc., and program director for the annual interdenominational Hum Lake Conference Assn., includes 13 years as a business man and "lay preacher" to thousands of teenagers and adults in Youth For Christ clubs and at youth camps. Also, he has conducted more than 150 family crusades.

THEME FOR the special series of services, is "Take Time For God!" Says Mr. Poure: "Add meaning to YOUR time! Are you giving God His rightful place in your life? His grace plus your faith, equals happy living!"

Special music for each service has been arranged by John Martinez, director of music for the church, assisted by other music committee members. The church's chancel choir will present anthems, gospel melodies, solos, duets and trios. Choir members, "The Clef Dwellers," a popular male quartet, will sing. Also, there will be guest vocalists and instrumentalists from other area musical groups.

Sunday School, which starts at 9:45 a.m., with classes for all ages, has set high attendance goals for all departments on May 5 and 12.

On the crusade's concluding night, "Revival Echoes," a service and Singspiration, will be held in Fellowship Hall after the meeting. Awards will be presented to team captains whose teams have brought the largest number of guests during the week. The social committee will serve refreshments that night.

Rev. Fredeen Gives Sermon At Covenant

The Rev. Gordon Fredeen, pastor of the Beulah Covenant Church Turlock, Calif., will be the guest minister at the Rolling Hills Covenant Church, 2221 Palos Verdes Drive North, Sunday, at the 11 a.m. service.

Mr. Fredeen, former pastor of the San Pedro Covenant Church, which was disbanded in 1957 following the organization of the Rolling Hills Church, frequently speaks at Bible camps and church conferences.

The Rev. Paul W. Anderson, pastor of the San Jose, Calif., Covenant Church, and Dan Frberg, trumpet soloist will be presented at the 7 o'clock evening service. A social hour will follow.

Rev. Hughes To Initiate Family Week

The Rev. Charles Hughes of the Western Avenue Baptist Church will observe the beginning of family week at the church Sunday with his sermon, "The Christian Home." He will discuss the responsibilities of wives and husbands to each other and to their children and the duties of children to parents.

Following a 6:30 p.m. potluck dinner Sunday evening, the Rev. Hughes will speak on "Counting the Cost," at 7:30. The text will be taken from Joshua 1, dealing with the deliverance of Israel into the promised land, and the application of this to Christian living today.

James White Low Bidder On Overpass

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has announced that apparent low bidder for the long-awaited construction of a grade separation at Rosecrans Avenue and Aviation Boulevard is James S. White.

The firm submitted a bid of $535,905, lowest of 13 proposals received by the Board of Supervisors. The overpass is a cooperative project between the state, county and Santa Fe railroad.

HC Slates Art Festival May 13 to 19

Activities of Harbor College students in the field of fine arts will be featured in the Fine Arts Festival scheduled from May 13 to 19.

Song recitals, band concerts, talent shows, art demonstrations and dramatic performances will all be part of the week-long activity.

Noontime programs are as follows: May 13, folk song recital in Sycamore Grove; May 14, art demonstration in Sycamore Grove; May 15, comedy and music program in Sycamore Grove; May 16, jazz concert in front of new Student Union; and May 17, all school talent show in men's gym.

Also on May 15, foreign students of Harbor College will present "An Afternoon With the Visa Students" starting at 2 p.m. in the Student Union. Dressed in their natural costumes the students will present entertainment typical of their countries. Food will also be served.

An art exhibit will be set up inside the cafeteria for the entire week.

Harbor drama students will stage "The Show-Off," a three-act comedy in the Starboard Theater, Monday through Thursday. To accommodate expected attendance in the small arena-type theater the play will start to run on Thursday, May 9.

May 17 a pops concert by the band and choir will be staged at 7:30 p.m. in front of the new Student Union.

All programs are open to the public free of charge except for "The Show-Off" which will cost $1 to the general public and 25 cents to Harbor students. Reservations for "The Show-Off" can be made by phoning TE 4-8581, Ext. 44.

Instructors in charge of the program are Robert Billings, and Robin DeVour, music; Fred Martin and Reuben Plaskoff, theater arts; and Pari Havlena, art.

Bible Lesson Concerns Sin And Suffering

The subject at all Christian Science services this Sunday will be "Everlasting Punishment."

Golden Text: "The Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; He will save us" (Isaiah 33:22).

The trials of Job will be featured in the Bible Lesson, which also includes these lines from the Christian Science textbook: "It is error to suffer for aught but your own sins. Christ, or truth, will de-

Club to Cite Fixer-Uppers

Mayor Albert Isen will present 32 homeowners with the Mayor's Award, for modernizing and enlarging their homes, at the Monday meeting of the Riviera Homeowner's Assn. at the Parkway School at 8 p.m. Mayor Isen will also present an award to the "Riviera Mother of the Year."

Following presentation of awards, a discussion will be held on the proposed high rise apartment building on the grounds formerly occupied by the Hollywood Riviera Club. Developers are expected to submit architectural drawings of the building.

Marine Pfc Michael D. Sittsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sittsworth of 1710 W. 235th St., is presently serving with the First Battalion, Eighth Marine Regiment, an infantry unit of the Second Marine Division at Camp Lejeune, N.C.
