

Torrance Gets

Highway Funds

Torrance was granted a $26,000 allocation by the Board of Supervisors for improvement of a portion of Crenshaw Boulevard.

Y Plans Dance

The Torrance YWCA Y-Teen Inter Club Council has applied for a dance permit and license for a dance scheduled from 7 to 11 p.m. on Memorial Day at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St.

... Schools

(Continued from Page 1) Assn. also asked for salary hikes, but representatives of the Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AF7-CIO, reported that the Torrance Local 1101 would submit its salary requests at a later meeting.

The Board authorized a call for bids for improvements to West High estimated to cost more than $1 million, and retained an architect to draw plans for an expansion of the Wood Elementary School.

"Multiple sclerosis is the most pressing neurological problem of our time," said the late Dr. Thomas M. Rivers, former head of the Rockefeller Research Institute.

... Car Check

(Continued from Page 1) dition to a car window sticker, indicating a successful test.

FAILURE ON one or all of the tests will not result in any penalty or report to authorities. The experts will tell only the driver, so that he may take proper action.

Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance, a Lions Club member, said, "The test certainly is worth a few minutes of our time, because passing assures us that our cars are safe for our families and ourselves, while failure may be an important warning before it's too late."

Murder ...

(Continued From Page 1) bar, located at 1327 Cabrillo Ave., they found Guerra lying on his left side at the end of a shuffleboard table. Police said an argument developed between Guerra and Heaton over a $5 bet on the outcome of a shuffleboard game.

HEATON, an electrical technician, said he bought the gun at a downtown Torrance pawn shop and said police would find that the gun is registered to him.

Heaton was arraigned Monday for assault with intent to commit murder and rebooked on murder charges after Guerra died. Funeral arrangements for the victim are pending at Stone and Myers Mortuary here.

... Traffic

(Continued from Page 1) Eugene Purkay, 31, Redondo Beach, police said.

IN THE OTHER weekend accident, Raymond Grant Montelius, 16, Long Beach, was taken to Little Company of Mary Hospital after his motorcycle was involved in a collision with a car driven by Joseph Charles Ortolano, 34, Long Beach.

The accident happened Saturday at Hawthorne and Talisman avenues. Montelius suffered minor injuries.

THE REAR portion of a small foreign model sports car was damaged while it was parked in front of his home.

Parade Cost: One Bicycle

A bicycle valued at $45 was stolen from a garage at 5020 Milne Dr.

Fifteen-year-old Paul Glass of that address told police the thief possibly entered the unlocked garage while the family was attending the Armed Forces Day parade in downtown Torrance. This was the only time the garage was left unlocked, the youth said.

Robert Buckman of 2275 W. 236th St., reported to police Tuesday.

In addition there were two dents possibly made by a baseball, he said. The damage occurred sometime between May 12 and last Saturday, he added.

TURNABOUT ... Businessman Al Terrence (left) chairman of the Home Furnishings Committee for the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, sells first tickets for celebrity premiere benefit of "Cleopatra" to Sheriff Peter J. Pitches. The Sheriff, a member of the Foundation's board, promptly turned about and sold a pair to Terrence. Proceeds of the June 20 premiere will go to the Foundation's continuing medical research program.

Leonards Opening Enlarged Discount Food Market Here

The 'Grand Opening' of Leonards newly enlarged and remodeled Discount Food Market located in their Torrance 'One-Stop Shopping Center' at 25405 S. Crenshaw Blvd., at the corner of Pacific Coast Highway will be held in conjunction with the annual Western Days event today through Sunday.

"This complete super discount food market features the latest and finest in modern refrigeration and display fixtures, assuring maximum protection for the high quality meat and produce being offered. The market which is 15,000 sq. ft. will offer major brands, efficient service, and the every-day shelf prices will be lower than Supermarket prices," said Dominic Onori, market manager.

BOB SHERRY, grocery and meat buyer, who has had 29 years experience in market merchandising, stated that "Customized meat service will receive special emphasis in our all-new meat department. People in the Torrance area will have the opportunity of getting the best foods at unusually low prices. We are able to accomplish this by knowing how to keep costs down while quality is maintained at the highest peak."

After specializing in the produce division of the market business for 20 years, Louis Amen, produce and grocery buyer, said, "We are proud of our fresh produce department. The market is re-stocked daily with fresh produce. With careful and thoughtful shopping, the Torrance housewife will be able to make tremendous savings in her food budget."

DURING THIS special event the market will have many free demonstrations as well as free gifts and free ice cream cones.

Robert Merryman, Torrance store manager, said, "While celebrating Leonards annual Western Days, our new market is the place to stock your 'Chuck Wagon'."

Early Alarm Clock Irks

Late Sleeper

Most people have an alarm clock to wake them up at the time they wish to get up, but an early riser in the 23000 block of south Grant Avenue doesn't believe in alarm clocks and residents there are waking when he does.

The culprit is a rooster which police were unable to locate Tuesday morning when they arrived upon the scene after old "Cock" finally got the ire of one resident to the point where the unsound sleeper "turned him in" to police.

Fire Damages Garage Here

Fire damaged the garage Monday night at the home of David Keck, 1220 Maple Ave. Flames were coming through the roof of the structure when firemen arrived on the scene. The two-car garage is detached from the home. Cause of the blaze is contributed to hot ashes, firemen said.

JOHN HALL, Manager Downtown Torrance Store

We're offering a fantastic selection of major appliance values at low prices during our...

PHILCO BONUS BONANZA

Just say "Charge It" ... choose your terms ... weekly, semi-monthly or monthly!

3 BIG DAYS ... Thurs., Fri. and Sat. ... OPEN 8 a.m. Till 6 p.m.

NEW PHILCO CONSOLE TV

and console stereo Dozens of models to choose from...once-in-a-lifetime values

NEW PHILCO APPLIANCES

Refrigerators • Freezers • Automatic Washers and Dryers • Duomatics • Ranges...priced to sell fast!

Convenient Payday Terms - Up to 24 Months to Pay!

SPECIAL BONUS

Your Choice

26" De Luxe Bike or 18" Power Mower

For Only

$5

with purchase of any new Philco TV or appliance listed above

Firestone advertisement featuring a large tire illustration and the text: "Firestone where your dollar buys MILES more CORNER CRAVENS & MARCELINA DOWNTOWN TORRANCE PLENTY OF OFF STREET FREE PARKING! FA 8-7881"

Advertisement for a store with the text: "OPEN EVERY NIGHT TILL 6 Except Sunday Saturdays Till 6"

STAR GAZER horoscope advertisement by Clay R. Follan, listing birth dates and corresponding zodiac signs.

Advertisement for Nair's Picture Shop with the text: "NOW OPEN AND DOING BUSINESS IN OUR NEW LOCATION IN DOWNTOWN TORRANCE NAIR'S PICTURE SHOP 1326 SARTORI PHONE FA 8-7728 OPEN FRI. 'TIL 9"