Leonards Brings 'Old West' Days To Torrance Beginning Here Today

Leonards Discount Department Store located at 25405 So. Crenshaw, Torrance, will celebrate their annual "Western Days" sale beginning today.

"This routin'-tootin' event proves to folks that the dollar is still worth 100 cents when they shop at our stores," stated Robert Leonard Jr.

A "fast-draw" contest will

take place as customers "reach for the bargains" that will be offered in every department throughout the store during this spectacular event.

While the folks are inside the store "rounding-up" major "branded" goods at good old-fashioned low, low prices, the kiddies will be given free rides in authentic covered wagons, drawn by two white mules which were purchased from Gene Autry at the close of the Seattle World's Fair. These wagons, which helped to blaze the trails to the West, are 50 to 60 years old. Driven by genuine movie and TV western cowboys, the wagons will blaze a trail around Leonards Store.

Pioneers in the discount department store field, Leonards invites their neighbors to join the fun of "Western Days." All the store employees and sales people will be decked out in their best western bib-and-tucker. Customers are invited to either "come as you are" or don their western garb. (No Guns Allowed).

According to Robert G. Graw, general manager for the Leonards chain, "this is one event of the year when our customers can 'corral buys' that are better than 'panning for gold'."

Refund Papers Must Be Filed

Albert B. Tieburg, state director of employment, has stated that well over $4 million will be refunded this year to wage earners who overpaid their disability insurance premiums last year, but only if they apply for their refunds by June 30.

Persons who work for two or more employers in a year may have too much deducted for this purpose because each employer, as required by law, makes a withholding for disability insurance.

Scouts Camp Out At Alondra Park

Girl Scouts from Lauola neighborhood participated in an overnight campout Friday at Alondra Park and attended park dedication ceremonies conducted by Kenneth Hahn, county supervisor, Saturday at noon.

Purpose of the outing was to give girls an opportunity to earn requirements for the backyard camper badge. Attending were troops 1681, 254, 2552, 2139, 1628, 772 and 80. Girls from troops 711 and 1579 served as aids.

WESTERN DAYS . . . Kids, here's your chance to get a free ride in an authentic covered wagon as Leonards celebrate "Western Days" at their Discount Department Store at Crenshaw Boulevard and Pacific Coast Highway Sunday from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.
