

Thrifty Drug Launches 34th Anniversary Sale

Thrifty Drug Stores will observe its 34th birthday this month and to celebrate the event the West's largest drug, variety and junior department store chain will conduct a month long sale now under way. Company officials announced the once-a-year sale will feature thousands of birthday "specials" in every store throughout the entire chain.

Manny Borun, Thrifty Drug vice president, stated, "This huge 34th Birthday Sale is our way of saying 'thank you' to the millions of people who have helped us grow from a single store in 1929 to a chain of 210 handsome stores operating in California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, and Idaho." Special 34th Birthday Sale prices will be featured on a vast array of items including ladies' sleeveless blouses, capri pants, seamless nylons, pressed powder compacts, and straw hats. Also featured are throw rugs, science and engineering kits, 82" 3-ring wading pools, and sports shirts.

Thrifty executives suggested, as a reminder, that you take advantage of the low 34th Birthday Sale prices to obtain that special Father's Day gift for Dad. All types of sports equipment is available, from golf balls to spin cast reels. Billfolds, gift sets, cotton T-shirts and briefs, air mattresses, ophthalmic sun glasses, and 10-piece jewelry sets are all marked at Birthday Sale prices.

Watch The HERALD for the Birthday Sale ads. Dad will appreciate your thoughtfulness and so will your pocketbook at Thrifty Drug Stores' giant 34th Birthday Sale, officials stated.

Three Win Intraschool Speech Test

Competing in the first El Camino College intraschool tournament, three students today possess trophies symbolic of victory in their respective fields.

Cecilia Lang won first place with her oral interpretation of material by Alexander King and Dillon Thomas' "Fern Hill."

With an original speech on the First Amendment to the Constitution, Mike Shadow placed first in oratory.

Impromptu winner Jay Mirrieles spoke first on patriotism and then Medicare.

"Due to the enthusiasm shown, we plan to hold the next intraschool tournament at the very beginning of the fall semester," Jerry Borden, El Camino College speech coach, stated.

Placing second in oral interpretation was Lucious McCarpine. R. Scott Pfafflin and Dave Prichard were tied for third place.

In oratory Dale Basinger and Gil Archuleta won second and third place, respectively.

Impromptu winners were Ron Ivy, second place, and Bonnie Radman, third.

Company Combines Offices

General Telephone Co.'s Redondo and Palos Verdes divisions have been combined to form the newly created South Bay division, according to Otis W. Campbell, northern area general manager for the utility.

"The consolidation of the two divisions makes it possible to combine both the installation and repair forces, creating additional flexibility and better customer service," he added.

Robert E. Frahm, former Redondo division manager, has become Santa Monica division manager and Bernard LeBaron, former Palos Verdes division manager is now manager of the expanded South Bay division, with offices in Hermosa Beach.
