

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann
Landers

'Lot Passes for Love, That Isn't ...'

Dear Ann Landers: Maybe you will remember me. I wrote to you three weeks ago and signed my letter "Randy." I just wanted to tell you how things turned out.

Remember how I thought for sure it was love? I wanted to give Dottie my class ring and my I.D. bracelet. I even wanted to buy her a $5 box of candy. I was like crazy, Ann. My head felt light as a feather. When I looked at Dottie I got weak in the knees and almost fainted. I perspired until my shirt was soaked through. My appetite was shot and I couldn't even look at food. Mom told me I looked terrible and she called a doctor.

Well, it wasn't love after all. It was the flu. I'm feeling fine now and I'm dating Dottie but I'm still going with other girls, too. I just thought you might like to know I'm flying right. And thanks for your advice to simmer down and relax. I think it speeded up my recovery. — BACK TO NORMAL

Dear Normal: I'm glad to know you are enjoying the best of health and that your head is now on straight. An awful lot passes for love these days that isn't love at all. And it isn't the flu either. It's the chemistry of youth, plus confusion.

Dear Ann Landers: I have always believed in tipping — whether I go to a coffee counter or a fancy restaurant. It's a habit that comes as naturally as paying the check.

My problem is a sticky one because it involves a young man I'm very fond of. He never leaves a tip. This young man is not hard up for money. He's just thoughtless. I've been on the verge of mentioning it many times but I'm afraid of hurting his feelings.

We often go to the same places and I'm embarrassed because I'm sure the waiters and waitresses have his number. What should I do? — STILL WATERS

Dear Still Waters: Tipping is part of our system — whether we are for it or against it. And because it's a built-in custom, some people are totally dependent on tips.

Tell the young man he should leave the waiter or waitress about 15 per cent of the check. If he's a decent guy he will appreciate your interest.

Dear Ann Landers: I could have hugged you when you told that woman to get off the floor and stop being a doormat. My minister gave me the same advice 10 years ago and it was the best thing that ever happened to me.

I had five small children and was afraid to speak to my husband for fear he would leave me. I felt like an unpaid servant. He'd finish dinner and run to his mother's house every night to play cards and drink beer with his no-good brothers. He said the kids made him nervous and he had to get out of the house.

After crying my eyes out for months I decided to talk (Continued on Page 10)

PV Christian Women Will Hear Actress

Palos Verdes Christian Women's Club will hold its monthly luncheon meeting Tuesday, June 11, at the Fish Shanty in Watteria.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Joan Winmill Brown, of Los Angeles, formerly of Wimbledon, England. A former actress, the guest speaker starred in the Billy Graham film, "Souls in Conflict."

She is the wife of Bill Brown, who is serving as associate Crusade director to the forthcoming Billy Graham Southern California Crusade. Mrs. Brown is the mother of two sons, Bill, Jr. and David. Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. Eunice Lawson.

PLAN MEMBERSHIP EVENT . . . A day of activity for new and prospective members of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary is being planned by, from left, Mmes. Robert R. Rojo, chairman, Harvel Guttenfelder, Richard Cusimano, co-chairman, James Kimble, president, and

Joseph Gagnier, at whose home the party will be staged. Festivities will begin with a punch brunch at 10:30 Tuesday morning to be followed by a smorgasbord and swim party. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Richard Cusimano.

Hospital Auxiliary Event

Punch-Brunch Will Honor New Members

Women's Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital will honor new and prospective members at a punch-brunch, smorgasbord and swim party Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Gagnier, 919 First St., Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. Robert Rojo, chairman of the event, has announced that the punch-brunch will be held at 10:30 a.m. followed by the smorgasbord and swim party at 12 noon.

Co-chairmen are Mmes. Richard Cusimano, Ron Blacker, Don Hyde, George Post, John Barrington, Sidney Thompson, Harvel Guttenfelder, Leonard Ensinger and Gilbert Derouin.

Applications will be available during the party for prospective members.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Richard Cusimano, 21429 Grant Ave., Torrance.

Women of the auxiliary dedicate their time and talent to an in-service program at the Torrance Memorial Hospital.

GAVEL EXCHANGE . . . Mrs. Don Lemen, newly-installed president of the Torrance Ladies of the Elks, accepts the gavel from Mrs. Kenneth McRae, retiring president, Lady Elks installed their new officers Saturday evening at a dinner dance at their lodge. (Portrait by Seeman)

Old Friends Photography Gather Here Topic For Club Meet

Mrs. Robert Tolson entertained a group of her school friends at a luncheon Friday at her home, 5413 Konya Drive.

Luncheon was served at noon and the afternoon was spent visiting and catching up on the news of former classmates.

Together for the occasion, the first in several years, were Mmes. Kenneth Lockman (Naomi Edwards), Huntington Beach; Robert Stewart (Wanda Moore), Garden Grove; Art Long (Jerry Faren) Rossmoor; John Agapito (Carlotta Dean), Torrance; Melvin Miller (Virginia Dykes), Torrance.

Two other guests were Mrs. John Barrington and Mrs. Gerald Witt.

Las Vegas Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Freckleton and daughter, Gail, 3121 Onrado, returned Saturday from a five-day vacation at the Stardust Hotel in Las Vegas. The trip was a birthday gift to Gail, who was 18 on May 31.

The Freckletons were joined in Las Vegas by Mr. and Mrs. Chick Cicchini, also of Torrance.

Leaves for Texas

H. C. Barrington, 1541 Post Ave., left last week for Texas where he will spend several weeks visiting relatives and old friends.

Elks Officiate

Lady Elks Install At Buffet Dinner Dance

Torrance Ladies of the Elks installed their new officers at a buffet dinner dance Saturday evening at the Elks Lodge on Abalone Ave. Charles Marquard, past exalted ruler of the Torrance Elks, officiated at the installation assisted by Don Lemen and Herman Sneskin, escorts; Joe Yates, chaplain; and Robert LeBlond, esquire.

Mrs. Don Lemen was endowed with the duties of the presidency. Serving with her during the coming year will be Mmes. Alex Bordeau, vice president; Tony Alonge, second vice president; Clarence Johnson, treasurer; Ray Cheek, recording secretary; Bob Ayala, corresponding secretary; Kenneth McRae, parliamentary; and Norm Radi, chaplain.

During the installation, Mrs. Lemen announced her chairmen for the year. They are Mmes. Dick Doms, birthdays; Neal Landrum and George Corbett, bulletin; Edward Ward, capsules; Robert LeBlond and Ollie Lorenz, Christmas welfare.

Photography Topic For Club Meet

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will hold its regular monthly luncheon at the Redondo Beach Elks Club, 315 Espalade, Redondo Beach, at 12:15 p.m. Thursday, June 13.

Herb Agrid of the Rivera Camera Shop will lecture and show slides on "How to Take Better Photos of Your Children." Mr. Agrid has been a professional photographer for 20 years, he teaches photography and is now in the process of preparing a book on child photography for publication.

For reservations contact Mrs. Jess Browning, 22305 Ellinwood Dr., Torrance. Babysitting is available.

Robert Currys Announce Son

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curry of Fullerton announce the birth of their first child, a son, on May 14 at the St. Jude Hospital in Fullerton. The young man, who weighed 7½ lbs., has been named William Oliver.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curry, 2031 Reynosa Dr., Torrance, and Mrs. Grace Green of Fullerton.

Mrs. Curry has just returned from Fullerton where she spent two weeks with her new grandson. The father of the new baby is a former Torrance resident.

TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT . . . Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, president of the Auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital, is awarded a pin by Mother M. Patricia for her 3,000 hours of service at the hospital as Mrs. Ralph Allen, right, chairman of hours looks on. The auxiliary staged its annual "awarding of pins" luncheon Thursday at the Polynesian. A fashion show followed the luncheon. (Herald Photo)

At Polynesian Restaurant

Acclaim Service Hours At Auxiliary's Fashion Affair

Little Company of Mary Hospital honored 43 senior auxiliary members, who served 100 or more hours at a luncheon Thursday, June 6, at the Polynesian Restaurant.

Presenting the pins to the honorees was Mother Mary Patricia, administrator, who expressed her gratitude to the auxiliary members for the thousands of hours they dedicated to the hospital and stated their efforts are a wonderful contribution to the welfare of the community.

The President's Pin, the highest award, was given to Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, for serving 3,000 hours since the inception of the women's auxiliary in 1959.

Eight women who have given their time were presented with gold bars denoting 1,000 or more hours each. They were Mmes. Martin Rice,

Charles R. Hosler, George Olivieri, Jule Reutz, James Murphy, Karl Ransom, Milton Bailey, and Homer Morgan.

Seven volunteers were singled out for contributing 500 or more hours. They were Mmes. Donald Puhl, Thomas Dear, Jay Ingles, Theodore McNeer, John Wilson, Charles A. Kirsnis and Cecelia Young.

Twenty-seven women who gave a "lending hand" in the form of 100 hours each were: Miss Carolyn Booth and Mmes. Ronald Bye, Howard Brooks, Marie Watson, Lois Butler, Jack Hahan, William Howard, Robert Koonz, Ben Kuchar, Dennis Lynch, Ann McCoig, Howard McVay, Jackson Maxey, Blanche Miller, T. L. Montgomery, Ronald Piccirillo, Albert Roth, Sherry Snyder, Harold Spores, Herbert Suer, Gust Sundquist, Harry Titus, Curt Wagner, Ted Whitting, Frank Eppenheimer, James Weber, C. R. Zaborowski, Homer Milsap.

Entertaining the honored volunteers and guests during the luncheon were auxiliary members who modeled Helen Botique's informal fashions. Modeling were Mmes. Robert E. Jenkinson, Jerome Hinman, Robert McMahan, Gordon Richard, Stanley R. Caughlan, Homer Milsap and Estelle Lovett. Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. T. L. Montgomery of Rolling Hills.

Special guests were Mother M. Barbara, honorary president of the auxiliary, Gene Alfred, president of the hospital advisory board, Robert Eiselben, assistant administrator, and Mrs. Frank Forester, past president of the auxiliary.

ISLAND INTRIGUE . . . North Torrance West Little League Auxiliary will capture the charm of Hawaii for their benefit dance to be held Friday June 14, 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Belle Porte, Harbor City. Going native for the dance are, from left, Mrs. Wesley Jones, ways and means chairman and her assistants Mmes. W. L. Myers and Al Gada. Ken Perkins orchestra will play. (Herald Photo)