to my clergyman. He said, "What if your husband died. You'd have to manage without him, wouldn't you? Tell him to grow up and act like a man or go to his mother's and stay there."

Well, I told him, Ann, just like the minister suggested and he almost fell off the chair. Believe me he's been a different person ever since. Now he treats me with consideration and respect. The woman who allows herself to be kicked around by her husband deserves it. — FROM DOORMAT TO PEDESTAL

Dear Pedestal: Congratulations on the transition. I am a firm believer in getting off the floor if you don't like being kicked around. It's always a joy to hear from someone who woke up and smelled the coffee. Thanks for writing.

Confidential to Nuts to Crazy Taxes: People are usually down on things they aren't up on. This is not a political column, but what you don't know about THAT subject would fill a library.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MRS. LOWELL L. BLOCK
... Married Saturday
(Portrait by Seeman)

Sheets-Block Nuptials Read in Baptist Rites

Miss Patricia Sheets, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheets, 411 E. Desford St., Torrance, exchanged her marriage vows with Lowell L. Block in a 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Torrance. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Don Pieper, of Long Beach.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. Her traditional wedding gown was of white nylon over taffeta. It had a lace bodice and a bouffant skirt. Her bridal veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered by white orchids.

Miss Norma Shuffield was the honor attendant, wearing a pale blue gown. Bridesmaids were Misses Inez Puerta and Mary Puerta. They were gowned in blue taffeta. All of the attendants carried carnation bouquets to match their gowns.

Donald Beddo stood as best man and ushers were Dale and Richard Block.

Rev. Robert Dehn, pastor, officiated at the marriage service.

A reception for the 150 guests was held in the church social hall. Miss Jean Sechler registered the guests.

The newlyweds are living in North Long Beach. Both the bride and her husband are Banning High School graduates. Mr. Block is employed at Douglas in Torrance.

Beth Torah Sisterhood To Attend Donor Event

A delegation of 85 members of the Southwest Temple Beth Torah Sisterhood of Gardena, led by their president, Mrs. Martin Siegel will attend the forthcoming joint Donor Luncheon sponsored by the Pacific Southwest Branch of the National Women's League of the United Synagogue of America. The Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel will be the scene of the 1,000-member annual luncheon on Monday, June 10, in which 19 Sisterhoods of the Conservative Movement are cooperating.

Every member present will have raised or given a substantial contribution to her Sisterhood for the benefit of Southwest Temple Beth Torah.

Mrs. Jerome Jutovsky, Sisterhood Donor chairman, announced that appropriate table centerpieces depicting the luncheon theme, "You Shall Rejoice in All That You Put Your Hand To" ... Deut. 12:7 ... will be displayed.

Leo De Lyon, talented and versatile entertainer, will headline the program with his unique brand of hilarity. Music is an integral part of Leo's presentation. Besides being a gifted comedian, he is also an outstanding pianist and arranger.

Mrs. Jules Wail, president of the Branch, announced that Mrs. Seymour Waterman, branch donor chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Joseph Wagner, branch program vice president, has arranged and will present the program for the afternoon. Headquarters of the Pacific Southwest Branch of National Women's League of the United Synagogue of America are in the University of Judaism, 6525 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles.
