Impact Rally Set Tonight By Churches

Three North Torrance churches will hold an "Impact" rally tonight at 8:30 at the South Bay Church of God, 17661 Yukon Ave., to encourage church and Sunday school attendance during the summer months.

Five minute messages will be presented by pastors of the churches. The Rev. Monrad Bergesen, of Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, will speak on "The Impact Upon Me;" The Rev. Maynard V. Midthun, of Christ the King Lutheran Church, "The Impact Upon My Church;" and the Rev. Clifford Tierney, of the South Bay Church of God, "The Impact Upon My Community."

Following the "Impact" rally, every family in North Torrance will be called on presented with an "Impact" window sticker. Thousands of home calls preceded the rally to contact teenagers and members of the three churches.

Rally chairman is F. L. Petersen, member of Hope Evangelical Church, Secretary-treasurer is Rose Mary Ulland, parish worker of Christ the King Lutheran Church.

Landfill Program Speeded

The county's Palos Verdes landfill program, which will make new land areas available for community uses, is approximately 30.7 per cent completed, Supervisor Burton W. Chace has reported.

The present level of filling operation is about 1800 tons of refuse daily, 30 per cent increase over last year's rate.

Rolling Hills Pony League is using land area previously filled. A parcel easterly of Crenshaw Boulevard, when filled, will be utilized for arboretum purposes, Chace said.
