Mike's Thursday Mailbag
Dear Sir: I'm so sick of all this nakedness. First Liz Taylor's nude scene in "Cleopatra," now Carroll Baker's in "The Carpetbaggers," and next, I hear, Elizabeth Montgomery will strip in Peter Lawford's movie, "Johnny Cool." Where will it end? — Louise Murdock, Defiance, Ohio.

Dear Louise: The first two you mention ended up on the screen but Miss Montgomery's, according to Lawford, will end on the cutting room floor in the domestic print. However, it will be shown overseas.

Dear Mike: Is Asa Maynor a bigger Kook than her husband, Kookie Byrnes, or does she just try to convince herself she is sophisticated? On a TV show the other night she made the remark about drinking champagne in her car all the way down to the program. And, no matter how you comb it, that's illegal—The Asp, Azusa, Calif.

Dear Asp: Mrs. Byrnes says it was for medicinal purposes. The way Edd drives, she gets carsick.

Dear Mike: What's the top male vocalist? — Betty Jean Borgardt, Marion, S.C.

Dear Betty Jean: I like Ray Charles, Frank Sinatra and Nat "King" Cole but Andy Williams' album, "Days of Wine and Roses," hit the No. One spot out of the 13 weeks it's been on the best-seller charts, selling at the rate of 8,000 per day. Proving you can't pick 'em all.

Dear Mike: Help me. My friend says Ross Martin of TV and the screen is of Irish descent. I say no. Who's right? — Rose Spaulding, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Rose: You are. His parents are Polish.

Dear Mr. Connolly: May I add a few lines to your items about songwriters Alan Jay Lerner working on "My Fair Lady" at Warner Brothers and Fritz Loewe recuperating from an operation —

"My Fair Lady" must be Alan's favorite offspring. It really did the audience and critic bell ring. With joy so great. It still is playing a date. If Fritz's kidney is as fine as his music in "Lady" and elsewhere, he can lick any operation in the real or make believe world — Be it music of time, place, boy or girl! — Jacob Bernstein, Rochester, N.Y.

Dear Jacob: I'm sure your lyrics will thrill Alan and Fritz and inspire them to write bigger and better hits.

Dear Mike: Is Ed Begly, that BEAUTIFUL Oscar winner married? — Ethel Marshall, Jacksonville, Ala.

Dear Ethel: No. He and Kathryn Squire were divorced in January. He's now keeping steady company with Eleanor Pfaff.

Dear Mike: I missed the Lucy Ball-Danny Kaye show on TV. I would love to see it and I'm sure many others would too. Can you tell me when it will be re-run? — Philadelphia Reader, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Phil: The network has no plans to re-run it because the network does not own it. The rights reverted to Danny after that first run. Tell your friends to start a landslide on Danny, care of the William Morris Agency, Beverly Hills, Calif., and maybe he'll let loose.

Sir: Why did Lizzie and Dickie do another picture together so soon after "Cleopatra"? Was it for love or money? — Walter Florio, Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Dear Walter: For both, but not necessarily in that order.

Dear Mike: Is it true that Peter O'Toole landed in jail for being drunk and disorderly when he was in Hollywood? 'Tis rumored, but I just can't believe it. Where can I write to him, in any event? — June Stevens, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear June: Peter stuck strictly to aqua pura during his Hollywood stay. Write to him at Hal Wallis Productions, Shepperton Studio, Middlesex, England, where he's now shooting "Beckett" with Sir Laurence Olivier.
