 habits. Your views are invited. — MAPLE LEAF MOTHER

Dear Mother: Don't order your son to break off his friendship with Doug. He may then feel compelled, out of a sense of loyalty, to defend his buddy and stick with him. Just keep impressing on your son that you have faith in his integrity and good judgment. Let him know you are confident that he will never disappoint you. Teenagers have a truly magnificent way of living up to their parents' high opinion of them.

Dear Ann Landers: The other evening my mother-in-law and I attended a civic banquet. At this particular affair there were six women seated at the speaker's table. After the dessert my mother-in-law, who is up in years, called my attention to the fact that five of the six women at the speaker's table had very poor manners. Why? Because they "painted their faces in public."

For years I have powdered my nose and applied fresh lipstick while at the table. Is this wrong? Sometimes the ladies room is half a block away, or on a different floor. Will you comment please? No doubt others would like to hear your answer.—W.T.L.

Dear W.T.L.: It is in perfectly good taste for a woman to powder her nose and apply lipstick at the table. Hair-combing is out, of course, and so is the eye-lash curling, eye-lining, fingernail repair work, and other little beauty tricks which should be reserved for the boudoir — or the ladies room.

'Childbirth Preparation' Class Slated

"Preparation for Childbirth" is being offered by the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., eight Monday evenings, from 7:30 to 9:30.

Mrs. Janet Anderson, instructor for the class and a registered physical therapist, will provide posture and relaxing exercises, training for labor and delivery, and exercises for muscle restoration following delivery.

The course, limited to 15 women, is open to mothers-to-be who have completed their 12th week of pregnancy and have their doctor's approval.

Additional information may be obtained by calling the Torrance YWCA. A nominal fee and YWCA membership are required.

OES Slates Birthday Celebration

Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate its birthday on July 18 at the Masonic Temple. Dinner, for which reservations are necessary, will be served at 6 p.m. Hostesses may be called not later than July 13.

Courtesy Night will also be observed with stations filled by chapter members. Past Matrons and Past Patrons will serve in line officer stations. Florence Viellenave, past matron, and Ray Shaffer, past patron, will be the presiding officers in the East.

Delegate at City of Hope Convention

Mrs. Bert Lynn, president of the Torrance Chapter of the City of Hope, represented the local chapter as delegate to the City of Hope Golden Anniversary National Biennial Convention held at the Ambassador Hotel July 8-10.

Mrs. Lynn arrived for the Monday registration and official opening of the convention, theme of which was "A Golden Heritage . . . A Golden Future."

On Tuesday she was joined by chapter members Mrs. John Arensmyer, Mrs. Ernest Erickson and Mrs. H. S. Rogers for the luncheon in the Coconut Grove.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Lynn attended the "Roll Call" Dinner in the Embassy Room where she presented a $1,000 check from the Torrance chapter.

Mrs. William Morrison, also a local member, attended the Wednesday luncheon with the delegate.

A "Night of Stars" banquet at the Beverly Hilton Hotel brought the convention to a close. The delegate was joined by her husband for the banquet.

Houseguests Mrs. Carrie Adlard, 1314 Portola, entertained as her houseguests for five days last week, Misses Janet and Karen Henry of New Martinsville, W. Va., who accompanied their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kendle of Plainsville, Ohio, on a trip to California. During their stay here, the visitors toured the points of interest in the vicinity.

Annual Event at Peck Park
Twins Club Family Picnic Set Sunday

Sixty sets of twins, along with twin strollers, dual diapers, double high chairs and batches of bottles will create an unusual assembly next Sunday, July 14, when the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club stages its fifth annual family picnic at Peck Park, area 2, San Pedro.

"This type of family togetherness is very gratifying to our club's purpose" states Mrs. Norvan McKean, San Pedro, this year's picnic chairman. Mrs. McKean has planned an exciting program keyed to the 350 persons attending. She is the mother of two sets of twins, Pat and Paul, 6, and Jamie and Kevin, 18 months. Working with Mrs. McKean are Mmes. Sam Major, Miraleste, Fred Castevens, Torrance, William Broadley, San Pedro; Marion Vilicich, San Pedro; John Watson, Bing Harris and Tom Prevo, Torrance.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. and all attending will be given clever name badges to wear, attached with large symbolic gold safety pins. Admission to the conclave is one dozen home-made cookies. Each family will bring its own picnic lunch and free coffee, served throughout the day, will be furnished for adults. Ice cream cups will round out the menu. A new activity this year will be organized swimming in the Peck Plunge.

Games for the teens and the traditional Twin's Parade and contest will be enjoyed. The highlight of the day, the contest will be judged in six categories of twins; they are: most identical girls; most identical boys; most alike boy-girl; most unlike boy-girl; most unlike girls; and most unlike boys.

On the committee are Mmes. Andy Meier, Collins Dunn, Ellis Myer, Louis Skodi, Ronald Eisman and Charles Farrington. Upon leaving the picnic, the Twins Club has provided an appropriate toy for each child present. Families, with twins living in the South Bay area, are invited to attend. Shutterbugs and Camera Clubs will find an excellent opportunity for some unusual "double-exposures."

At the regular monthly meeting at Chin's Chinese Gardens, Lomita, on Monday, July 15, 7:30 p.m., the Mother's Club will see a demonstration on wig fashions by Stewart, owner of La Contessa Salon, Rolling Hills. Hair styling will also be featured.

For membership information, Mrs. James Husereau of Torrance may be called.

IT'S PICNIC TIME . . . Loading the ice box for next Sunday's annual South Bay Mothers of Twins Club Family Picnic are Mrs. Tom Prevo and twin sons, David and Danny, 4 1/2 years old. A day of games, food, soft drinks and a twins contest has been planned at Peck Park, area 2, San Pedro. Over 60 sets of twins, with their families, will be in attendance at the all-day event. Eta Phi Unit Installation

Eta Phi Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, held its annual installation of officers at the Hacienda in San Pedro on June 27. Mrs. Wilton Le Blanc Jr., past president of Mira Costa Council, was the installing officer.

Officers installed were Mmes. Walter Luttjohm, president; Mike McLaughlin, first vice president; Wayne Farris, secretary; John Gard, treasurer; Homer Hoover, education director; Gen Springer, council delegate.

Following the installation and dinner, Mrs. Gene Bowen Jr., past president of Eta Phi, was presented a Thorpe glass centerpiece by the membership for serving as president for the past two years.

Beta Sigma Board Meets

Seven members of the executive board of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi gathered for a luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. Gene Olson, recently.

Mrs. Howard Asper, publicity chairman, reported on the press luncheon held June 15 at the Greenbrier Inn in Garden Grove. The annual affair is staged by the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi.

Attending with Mrs. Asper was Mrs. Bert Whited, president of the South Bay Area Council.

Enjoying the meeting and luncheon were Mmes. Olsen, Jay Echilberger, Robert Kane, James Barnhart, Henry Jacobsen, Bert Whited, Howard Asper and Gene Olson.

Pilot Club to Meet Tonight

Pilot Club of Torrance will hold a business meeting this evening at 8 p.m. at 2211 Torrance Blvd. An executive board meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Mewborn and Hitchcock office.

Enerson-McClung Troth At St. Margaret Marys

The wedding ceremony of Miss Elaine Sharon Enerson, niece of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Spotts of 5630 Ravenspur Dr., and Dennis McClung, son of Mrs. F. S. McClung of 25920 Narbonne, was officiated by the Rev. Patrick J. McCoory at Saint Margaret Marys Church. Miss Enerson was given in marriage by Mr. Spotts.

The bride's street length, full-skirted gown, featured long sleeves and lace bodice. Her shoulder length veil was held with a pearl crown. The bridal bouquet was of carnations and butterfly orchids.

Miss Barbara Banner, maid of honor, wore a blue gown, with bell-shaped skirt and long sleeves. She carried white carnations. Mr. Steven McClung attended the bridegroom as best man. Frank Fisher served as organist and Mrs. Steven McClung was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Enerson was graduated from Ramona High School, Riverside, in 1962 and is now attending Harbor College.

Following a wedding reception at the home of the bride's aunt, the newlyweds planned a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe via United Airlines.

They will reside at 24625 1/2 Pennsylvania, Lomita.

Betsy Ross Club Meets Tuesday

Betsy Ross Club of the Torrance Eastern Star will meet Tuesday, July 16, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., at 10:30 a.m. for a short business meeting. Card games will follow with a luncheon at noon.

At the last meeting of the club, work was begun on fancy work and other items for the annual bazaar to be held Oct. 5.
