

C. Y. Lee Comedy Opens Tomorrow Night for Run

Opening night for the new C. Y. Lee comedy, "Houseboat Named Pebbles," will be tomorrow night at the Chapel Theater, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Lee, author of the Broadway hit "Flower Drum Song," chose Chapel Theater for the premier of his latest play after seeing the group in rehearsal. He has been on hand to assist director Fred West throughout rehearsals of the play.

THE PLOT concerns a couple who move into a houseboat so the young husband can soak up atmosphere to write the "great American novel." he feels compelled to write. After a long period of quiet, Carl decides he and his wife should join a lonely heart club as brother and sister—for atmosphere.

The play builds on a sequence of hilarious misadventures, with complication piling on top of complication.

KIRK DADISMAN of Hollywood plays Carl, and his wife is portrayed by Gretchen Cole of Encino. Others in the cast include Carolyn Conwell, Jack Daly, Yvonne Benedix, Romona Bingham, Anita Johnson, Warren Lavender, Barbara Vrooman, and Warren Dieter. Also featured are Sally Slatter and Dixie Riggs.

"Houseboat Named Pebbles" will be presented five weekends, with performances on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Admission is $1.50 for Friday and Sunday performances and $1.75 on Saturday. Reservations may be made by calling the box office, FR 2-9636.

A $1,500,000 Vote of Confidence for the Torrance School District

As a resident within the Torrance Unified School District you voted to let the district issue school bonds. This was your vote of confidence in the area the district serves. Bank of America and its associated investment dealers demonstrated the same confidence in buying the bonds—giving the district the money it needs for improved educational facilities.

Interest rates on the bonds were decided by competitive bidding—a procedure required by law to obtain the lowest average interest rate for the taxpayer under current bond market conditions. Interest rates also reflect the credit rating of your district.

We, at Bank of America, bid on nearly all municipal bonds issued in the State. We're particularly proud to play a key role in the development of the Torrance Unified School District.

One thing that gives us confidence is that you and your neighbors wisely recognize the demonstrated truth: good schools benefit all citizens—those with and without children alike. The quality of a community parallels the quality of its schools. This is reflected in property values through the years.

You may be interested in buying Torrance Unified School District Bonds as a personal investment. They offer the advantage of tax exempt income and are available in denominations of $1,000. You can purchase these bonds through your local Bank of America branch—or contact our Municipal Bond Department in San Francisco or Los Angeles.
