looks to others. —PAYING CUSTOMER
Dear Customer: There will always be people who want something for nothing. For them there is no cure. They can't be shamed, cajoled or chided into changing their ways, so don't try.
Surely all the papers aren't pawed over, so why not take yours from the bottom of the pile?

Dear Ann Landers: If a girl slaps a boy's face, for no reason whatever, is the boy justified in slapping her back?

Several of us teen-agers are waiting for your answer because it happened to one of the greatest kids in our crowd and we want to know if what he did was right. Thank you. —JASPER, IND.

Dear Jasper: There's a reason for everything. The fact that you don't know the reason doesn't mean there is none.

The boy who got a clomp in the chops may or may not have done a little something to earn it. If he was absolutely innocent then the girl is an erratic impulsive loon.

A boy who hits a girl for any reason whatever puts himself squarely in her class. The better approach is to take her straight home and lose her phone number.

McCormack-Deschene Wedding at Nativity

Nativity Catholic Church was the setting for the nuptial mass and ceremony on Oct. 28 at 11:30 a.m. in which Miss Carol Anne McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. McCormack, 3301 Antonio, Torrance, became the bride of Joseph Raymond Deschene. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Deschene, 2023 Andreo.

The Rev. William Appling officiated at the mass and double ring ceremony as Mrs. Mary Butterfield, organist, played the nuptial music. She also accompanied Frank Algame who sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "On This Day."

Mr. McCormack escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of peau de soie featuring a scoop neckline, three-quarter shirred sleeves, and a full bell-shaped skirt. Roses of Alencon lace, sprinkled with pearls, ornamented the skirt, which draped into a chapel train. An Alencon lace rose held her illusion veil and the bride carried a carnation cascade.

Mrs. Nancy Czupka served as the matron of honor. She wore a turquoise sheath and carried yellow carnations.

Toni Marie Fazio, in a pale turquoise frock, was flower girl.

Ernest Czupka stood as best man and ushers were James Wofter and John Turner.

Following the wedding, the 75 guests were entertained at dinner at the Plush Horse Inn. Miss Carol Fennessey was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas, Lake Tahoe and San Francisco and are now at home in Torrance.
The bride was graduated from Medford High school in Massachusetts and is employed in the audit department of Sears.

Her husband was graduated from Torrance High school, El Camino College and UCLA. He is accounting supervisor for Teledyne Systems Corp. in Hawthorne.

Stork Shower Surprise for Mrs. Carlson

Mrs. Frederick Carlson was honored at a surprise stork shower given Tuesday evening, Nov. 19, by Mrs. Lloyd Goddard at her home, 1735 Elm St.

Blue, green and yellow were the colors used by the hostess in decorating. A decorated cake centered the dining table. Several appropriate games were played, after which Mrs. Carlson opened her shower of gifts.

The hostess served refreshments in party colors. Attending the shower were Mmes. Lydia Wysocki, Lou Carlson, Alma Sanderson, Ann Ouellette, Hazel Emenger, Mary Ann Wells, Vernice Cochran, Beatrice Moore.

Also Mmes. Shirley Schwarz, Lois Hagen, Eileen Pulliam, Lilly Sorenson, Pat Buchalle, Eloise Reeder and Pamela Peaker; Misses Tommy Goddard, Sharon Goddard and Donna Cochran.

Sending a gift was Mrs. Fern Cannon.

Marianist League Dance Saturday

Bridal Shower Courtesy for Recent Bride

Mrs. Jim Gremminger, 2750 Arlington Ave., who was Miss Judy Rice before her marriage on Oct. 31 at the Torrance Baptist Church, was complimented at a bridal shower Friday evening given by Mrs. Dan Farris at her home, 1346 221st St.

The dining table was centered by a tiered wedding cake decorated with two entwined hearts bearing the names of the bridal couple.

Several appropriate games were played after which the hostess served refreshments carrying out the party colors.

Bringing gifts for the bride were Mmes. Damon Farris, Joseph Morton, William Barnhill, Billy Bowes, John McIntyre, Lester Stone, Ernie Hobbs Jr., Renford Rice, Lonnie Russell, Billy Garrison, Judy Parker, T. Goolsby, Mike Smith.

Also, Mmes. Beaulah Landerville, Pat Rhine, Pauline Hartley, Lela Gremminger, and Cal McCarty.

Others were Mrs. Marvin Thorpe of Le Soken, England, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Damon Farris; Mrs. Larry Gremminger of Lomita; and Misses Glenda Rice and Charlene Garrison.

styled with a modified scoop neckline, long sleeves, a cummerbund and bustle skirt. Her French illusion veil was held by a lace crown and she carried a bouquet of carnations.

Members of the wedding party included the mother of the bride; her brother, Matthew, and her sister, Martha; the bridegroom's mother; his brother, Paul, and his sister, Diane.

After the ceremony, a wedding supper was held at the "Castaway."

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas and at Hoover Dam before establishing a Barstow home.

The bride was graduated from Ambassador High School in Torrance in 1962 and was a member of the Pep Club. Her husband, a native of Germany, was educated in Barstow schools. He served four and a half years in the United States Army in Germany. Mr. Kersten is employed at the USMC Center, Barstow, and is a student at Barstow College.

Dance Sponsored By Girls League

"The Midas Touch" was the theme Friday night as the South High School Girl's League presented its first formal dance. Couples attending the affair danced to music provided by the Esquires in a room decorated in gold and royal purple.

Nancy Menashe, decorations chairman, and Nancy Enderson, co-chairman, borrowed from the story of King Midas to set the atmosphere for the event.

Hanukkah Carnival At Temple Menorah Dec. 8

Final plans and preparations are now being arranged for the Hanukkah Carnival to be held at Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach, on Dec. 8.

The Temple religious school children are busy at work developing artwork projects depicting the Hanukkah theme—"Hanukkah—Festival of Freedom."

The art medium used is at the discretion of the teacher and student. Grades pre-kindergarten through high school will be competing in this Religious School project.

The Student Council of Temple Menorah will choose the best projects. Ribbons will be made for prizes by the students and will be given to each winning project. The winning projects will be displayed at the Hanukkah Carnival on Dec. 8.

Rabbi Jerome A. Unger will announce the winners at Religious Services the following Friday night and will honor these winning students at the services.

Among other carnival events, there will be Macabean Matinees for the children at 2 and 4 p.m. featuring live entertainment; Hanukkahland fantasia of carnival booths, prizes and lots of food, which includes hot dogs, potato lotkes (pancakes), cotton candy, pizza and drinks.

For further information, Robert Feldman, chairman, Jack Belford, or Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rodson may be contacted.

The public is invited to attend.

Birthday Dinner

Birthday celebrants at the Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula recently were Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Vitale of Hollywood Riviera, who entertained a table of friends with a seafood dinner on the occasion of Mrs. Vitale's natal anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vitale of Hawthorne were among the well-wishers at the party.
