Carmen Valdivia Becomes Bride of Ronald Furnari

Honeymooning in San Francisco are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald D. Furnari, who were married at high noon, Sunday, Nov. 24, at the St. Anthony's Catholic Church in El Segundo. Mrs. Furnari is the former Carmen P. Valdivia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Valdivia, 20619 Amie Ave. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Furnari, 629 W. Acacia.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a peau de sole gown fashioned with a fitted embroidered bodice with a square neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt, caught in bustle effect, fell into a chapel train. The bouffant bridal veil was secured by a lace and pearl headpiece. White orchids and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Philip Gonzales was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Linda and Amalia Valdivia and Helen Furnari. They wore lime green empire dresses and carried pink carnations.

Celia Gonzales, in a full length pink dress, was flower girl and Ruben Castellanos was ring bearer.

Tom Tarrin performed the best man duties and Pete Barba, Phil Gonzales and Luis Noto were ushers.

Rev. C. Drumm officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the Moose Lodge in El Segundo.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and the cosmetology department at El Camino College.

She is a member of the California Cosmetology Assn. Her husband, an El Segundo High graduate, was also graduated from the El Camino College cosmetology department.

The new home will be in El Segundo.

Recipe Book Now on Sale

Dianas are now offering for sale their new recipe book entitled "and Everything Nice."

The clubwomen have compiled a collection of members' favorite recipes and present in this book a varied and select array of dishes.

They have contributed treasured family favorites, interesting variations of traditional recipes and some completely new and different concoctions. All of the recipes are tried and tested and include main dishes, breads, desserts, salads and vegetables.

Mrs. Reynolds Gorsuch may be called for more information.

Bailey-Cooper Nuptials Recited by Candlelight

In a candlelight, double-ring marriage ceremony on Nov. 16 at 7:30 p.m. at the Narbonne Avenue Baptist Church in Lomita, Miss Elizabeth Helen Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bailey, 26437 Ozone Ave., Harbor City, became the bride of Byron Patrick Cooper of San Pedro.

Rev. Joel Rivers, minister of the Lomita First Christian Church, stood before the flower-banked altar to conduct the marriage service. As the 200 friends and relatives gathered, Mrs. Arthur McDonald, at the organ, played a medley of nuptial music. Richard Bonham sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a Chantilly lace gown detailed with a fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline and long lily-point sleeves. The bouffant skirt was of tiers of Chantilly ruffles. A pearl princess crown held her lace-edged veil. The bride carried a cascade of white butterfly roses.

The entourage consisted of Mrs. Keith Jones as matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Dreyer, Mrs. Robert Bruce and Mrs. George Adamson as bridesmaids. Each wore a gown of emerald green silk brocade and matching silk and net hat. Their bouquets were cascades of white carnations.

Lee Ann Huff, in a green chiffon frock, was flower girl and the rings were carried by Glen Huff. Candles were lighted by Miss Anna Phillips and Albert Hall, Jr. Duties of best man were performed by Al Gamos. Ushers were Dean Lawrence, Ed Lopez and John McGee.

A reception was held in the church social hall, which was decorated in emerald green and white. The bride's table was centered by a four tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Bud Howe was reception hostess. Miss Janet White was in charge of the bride's book.

The bridal couple spent a honeymoon in San Diego and Palm Springs. They are now living in Lomita.

The new Mrs. Cooper was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1960. She has been employed at the Western Bank in Torrance.

Her husband, a Torrance High graduate, operates Patrick's Carousel, hair styling salon, in San Pedro.
