Christmas Contest to Continue

There will be prizes galore for some lucky shoppers at the North Torrance Shopping Center come Christmas.

The merchants, now in the midst of their annual pre-Christmas sale, will offer such lovely items as TV trays, a crystal punch bowl set, a 17-jewel watch, an old-fashioned fruit cake, a toy race set, a three compartment fruit bowl, and a knit wool sweater.

Shoppers may enter the contest by clipping the coupon which appears in the merchant's advertisement in today's HERALD and depositing it in the box in any one of the stores. Winners will be notified after the contest closes.

All stores in the center will be open until 9 p.m. each night until Christmas. The center is located at 190th Street and Anza Avenue.

Garden Valley Children in Kennedy Film

Several scenes including children at the Garden Valley Center for mentally retarded children are included in the film "To Solve a Human Puzzle," which was presented at the Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation awards dinner in Washington, D. C., last night.

The documentary, filmed with a grant from the Kennedy Foundation under the direction of Archer Goodwin, professor of Valley College, is narrated by Charlton Heston. Under the auspices of MGM, Verna Fields did the editing and sound track. Miss Fields was awarded an Oscar for her work in the movie "El Cid."

The purpose of the film is to portray the retarded and their parents in the home and community. The documentary will be shown on the west coast by delayed tape over KTTV, Channel 11, today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vincelli, members of the Garden Valley Assn., and Mrs. Vicki Isquith were in charge of arrangements for the filming of the Garden Valley children.

Christmas card

All you need to wrap up your Christmas shopping is some paper, some ribbon, and a BankAmericard. Good at thousands of stores in California, a BankAmericard puts all your purchases in one package. You get just one bill, write just one check for everything you've bought. Or if you prefer, you can spread out your payments for a small service fee. How much does a BankAmericard cost? Nothing. You don't even have to be a Bank of America customer to get one. And it costs you nothing to use if you pay in 25 days. Why not get a head start on Christmas this year—and put a BankAmericard at the top of your list!

One Gift Works Many Wonders. GIVE THE UNITED WAY

You'll jump for joy, too. 'Cause you save so much with a Gas clothes dryer. You can save a small fortune on installation alone. (Other kinds of dryers often cost as much to install as they do to buy!) Operating cost? Gas dries clothes for less than 2¢ a load. (Other kinds of dryers cost you four times as much!) What's more a Gas dryer breezes through wash-day...faster than any other kind. And Gas dries clothes soft, fluffy, airy as can be. Why don't you breeze down to your dealer's or Gas Company showroom? See all the new, fast, trouble-free, money-saving Gas dryers now. You'll just jump for joy.
