

Ann Landers

 Have been going steady for almost a year now and I want to go out with other guys but I don't know how to tell Pete. He's so crazy about me I'm afraid he'll have a nervous breakdown or commit suicide or something.
 Ten of my very closest girl friends were here last night for a hen-party and they all offered suggestions on how to tell Pete goodbye. None of their suggestions were very good. I need a really great farewell because Pete is the sensitive type. I'd rather die than hurt his feelings, but at the same time I have to be firm so he'll know he's been chopped for good.
 Please, Ann, throw me a life saver.—SOFT HEARTED SUE

Dear Madame Pompadour:
 I can't understand how a girl who calls herself "Soft-Hearted Sue" could be so insensitive to a boy's feelings that she would invite ten girls to offer suggestions on how to unload him.
 Tell Pete straight-away that the steady arrangement is off and that you want to date others. I guarantee he'll live. In fact he may even have his next girl all picked out.
