

Four Sunday Services Set for St. Andrew's

Celebration of Christmas at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., will continue Sunday with four services in the sanctuary, according to the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector.

Celebration of Holy Communion has been scheduled for 7:30 a.m. and the 9:15 a.m. services will be devoted to "The Story of Christmas in Scripture and Song."

The traditional "Carols by Candlelight" will close the pre-Christmas observances at 5 p.m. Sunday at the church.

Knights Busy With Program To Aid Needy

The members of St. Gerard Council, local Knights of Columbus are planning a busy fortnight. Their annual Christmas charities are in progress. The committee under the direction of Chairman Ed Abbott is arranging to fill 10 baskets for the less fortunate families in our area. His helpers are Frank Stone, Don Stone, Joe Simpson, John Del Rosso, Charles Butterfield, Leo Winters, and Harold Pope.

On Sunday, Dec. 22 the children of the members will be feted with a Christmas party at the Nativity Parish Annex with toys and candy for all and a visit from Santa Claus.

Another event will be the New Year's Eve party, an annual affair for members and friends. It will be held at the home of Charles Butterfield, Grand Knight. Members of Court St. Catherine Catholic Daughters will be also invited along with their husbands and friends.

High School Cantata Slated

Harbor City Christian High School's Christmas program "King and Savior" will be presented Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Harbor City Foursquare Church, 255th and McCoy. The cantata will feature various solos and duets with the choir. Soloists will include Danielle Smith, Margaret Hitchcock, Geneva Harmon, George Rakowicki.

Girls Receive ECC Honors

Two El Camino College coeds from Torrance received recognition at the 23rd semi-annual Cosmetology Hairstyling contest recently. They were Peggy Webb, 19, of 23721 Lucille St., who won second place in her particular division, and Pat Silver, 19, of 4162 W. 172nd St., a lower division entrant who received honorable mention.

Nursery care will be provided for all Sunday services except at 7:30 a.m.

Choral Eucharist will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. Christmas Eve and again at 11:15 p.m. Nursery care will be offered at the earlier service.

Christmas day observances will include celebration of Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. and the annual Christmas family worship service of morning prayer at 10 a.m. Nursery care will be offered at the 10 a.m. service.

Celebration of Holy Communion honoring St. Stephen will be at 8:30 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 26, the rector said.

Foursquare Church Set For Cantata

The cantata, "Night of Miracles," will be presented at 7:15 p.m. Sunday at the Foursquare Gospel Church, Arlington Avenue and Sepulveda Boulevard.

A 35-voice choir will participate with soloists Noni Johnson, Lewis Servaes Jr., Robert Walker and Nori Hanadka.

Karyn Busse will be at the piano and organist will be Elsie Deane Morphis of Los Angeles. "What Reception of Christ in '63?" will be the Christmas message by the Rev. James P. Lowen. The sermon will be at 10:45 a.m.

Change Test Schedules In Schools

Iowa Tests of Educational Development, which have been given in Torrance to all high school students each year, will now be given only in the ninth and eleventh grades.

The Board of Education approved the change in testing following a recommendation by the high school principals and counselors.

The principals said the new schedule would provide the necessary data for gauging educational achievements.

Land Offered For Sale; No Bids Received

Torrance school board members are still in possession of a triangular piece of the Joseph Arnold school site which they had tried to sell.

The board had advertised for sealed bids to be opened at Monday's meeting of the trustees. At meeting time, no bids had been received.

The trustees did, however, dedicate portions of the site to the City of Torrance for streets, and granted a drainage easement across the area.

OF MANY LANDS . . . Students at the First Lutheran Christian Elementary School presented their annual Christmas program in the church last night. "Christmas in Many Lands" featured the traditional Nativity scenes, and ended with children dressed in the native costumes of many lands singing the traditional songs of Christmas. Shown here are members of the choir, which included: (back row) Jeffrey Schelt, Germany; Nancy Armstrong, Israel; Cheryl Weddle, Hawaii; Carol Hammer, Alaska; (second row) Ernie Park, France; Marilyn Freiling, Scotland; Connie Walters, China; Kelly Scruggs, Mexico; and Michael Davis, Holy Land; and (front row) Chris Vaughn, Egypt; David Brown, American Indian; Bill Hummer, England; and Tom Loveland, Japan. ## Church to Present Junior Choir Next Sunday Evening

A 30-voice choir will be introduced next Sunday at the Del Amo Christian Church, 4915 Emerald St., the Rev. Leslie C. Ashford, minister, announced this week. The choir will be presented in singing "Music of Christmas" during the 7 p.m. worship services, the minister said.

Also scheduled for next Sunday evening's pre-Christmas program will be recitations, the manger scene, and other offerings of the Sunday School classes of the church.

Christmas anthems will be offered by the church choir at today's 7 p.m. service and the Christian Youth Fellowship will offer a play, "The Road to Bethlehem." Leading roles in tonight's performance have been assigned to Rod McCammon, Rick Rose, Gene Scott, and Sandy Morlock.

Gift Accepted By School Board

"Tall Tales," a collection by Bryna and Louis Untermeyer, has been donated to the school district by the Delta Psi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, a woman's honorary educational association.

The book was presented in memory of Mrs. Thelma Wright, a former Torrance teacher. The gift was accepted by the Board of Education, which asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to Delta Kappa Gamma.

Masonic Hall Service Site

Unity Church of Christianity will present "The Christmas Story" at 10:45 a.m. Sunday in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave.

The church's lesson topic on Sunday, Dec. 29, will be "Freedom in Christ" and is scheduled for the same time and place.

Declare Nov. 25 Legal Holiday

State Department of Education officials have declared Nov. 25, the official day of mourning for President John F. Kennedy, an official holiday under provisions of the Education Code.

Trustees of the Torrance Unified School District, after receiving the notification, voted to revise the school calendar from 179 days to 178 days for the current year.

Tartar Teen Talk

A wonderful evening awaits the guests at the winter formal, Golden Fantasy, tomorrow evening. The music of the Esquires will brighten the holiday season for all Tartars who attend. The dress is semi-formal, and the time is 9 to midnight.

The introduction of the four yuletide princesses will be the highlight of the evening. One girl, representing her class, will accept top honors for the work on the annual canned food drive for the needy.

The two-week campaign for the less fortunate has been the Tartars' offering of true Christmas spirit to those families in need in Torrance.

Soloists In Cantata Announced

"Night of Miracles," written by John W. Peterson, will be presented at the Del Amo Southern Baptist Sanctuary Choir Sunday evening at 7 in church at 3915 W. 226th St. John Shelton of Hollywood will direct.

Soloists for the special cantata will include Dale Hagar of Torrance and Glenn and Lois Shelton of Hollywood and Glendale. Mrs. Arnold Lee will be the organist and Mrs. Kenneth Earwood the pianist.

The presentation will be broadcast over FM station KAPP (93.5) according to the Rev. Daniel B. Weaver, pastor. Annual Christmas worship services at the church have been scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday.

65 Persons Join Church

Sixty-five new members were received into membership of Christ the King Lutheran Church at special services recently.

Received through confirmation after completing a course of instruction were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Day, Mrs. Norman Grimm, James Cale, Mrs. Wanda Lawson, Maj. and Mrs. Quentin Plikerd, and Leroy Snow.

Others were Mrs. Cynthia Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ruecker, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Schreiner.

Central Choir to Present 'The Wonder of Christmas'

"The Wonder of Christmas" Fair; tenor, Carl Pisel, and basso Glenn W. Brinley. The Rev. Walter M. Stanton will read the scripture taken from the second chapter of Luke's Gospel.

Sunday evening at 5:30, a Vesper service will be held at the church with a pageant being given by members of the Sunday School. At 7 the young people will go caroling, returning to the Guild Hall for refreshments.

The choir will be under the direction of Mrs. Irene Hoy with Mrs. Hilda Finley, organist, and Miss Stanton as pianist. Soloists will include sopranos Winifred Ruppell and Joan Huber; contralto, C a r o l

Students Treat Faculty, Wives

Members of the home economics department at El Camino entertained college faculty, their wives and other members of the college staff yesterday afternoon with a tea in the new living center of the Life Science Building.

Under the direction of Mrs. Joy Kaye Hightstret, home economics instructor, students prepared and served such treats as orange juice, apricot dream-bars, orange-nut cookies and sugared pecans. Assisting the lab classes was Mrs. Hazel Kuehn.

A Bible and a newspaper in every home, a good school in every district — all studied and appreciated as they merit — are the principle support of virtue, morality, and civil liberty. — Benjamin Franklin.

Candlelight Service Set For Tuesday

"A Meeting in the Manger," will be the sermon title at Christ the King Lutheran Church service Sunday morning.

The Sunday morning services are scheduled for 8:30 and 11 and mark the beginning of Holy Communion.

Carol and candlelight services are scheduled for 11 p.m. Tuesday. The annual Christmas Eve program will feature music by the King's Choir under the direction of Fred Wilkins and the Knights' Choir directed by Janet Myren. Sermon title will be "My Son."

Christmas Day Festival service will be at 10 a.m. with the sermon title "History's Brightest Hour." Special Christmas anthems will be sung by the King's and Knights' choirs, The Boys' Choir, the King's Chorales, and the Primary Choir.

Organist for all services is Mrs. William Hess.

THE TARTAR wrestling team wrenched their second victory of the young season from Leuzinger this week. The victory gave the Tartars reassurance for the league matches ahead. Tomorrow the combined efforts of Kay Loftus and Leo Sandoval, THIS music teachers, will be exhibited at the Christmas aud-cast. The talents of the Tartar Choir, the Girls' Glee Club, and many individuals will be displayed.

This traditional finale to the 1963 school year is to be an especially memorable occasion, setting the atmosphere for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

FOR ALL the Tartars, best wishes to you for a cool Yule and a frantic first. See you next year!
