Darlene Olquin Named 'USO Doll of the Month'

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Olquin, Jr. of 519 West 214th Street, Torrance, are the parents of Darlene Olquin, current "USO Doll of the Month," who celebrated her 20th birthday at the USO Dance, Dec. 5.

During the month of October, this young lady from Torrance garnered the highest total of points through her spirit of cooperation, initiative, dependability, attitude, appearance, behavior, attendance and punctuality in her USO-Harbor Area Program participation.

Elmer Dunscomb of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks No. 966, San Pedro, opened the sealed telegram announcing that Miss Darlene Olquin had been chosen as the fifth "USO Doll of the Month!"

Rick Givney, Junior Vice-Commander of VFW Post 1253, San Pedro, presented the permanent trophy to Darlene, while Mr. Dunscomb handed her the sterling medallion commemorating the occasion.

Prominent in the applauding crowd of servicemen and USO volunteers were two USO Junior Volunteers that Darlene had brought into the organization — Miss Judy Orozco and Miss Esther De Luz, both of Wilmington.

Miss Pat Rizzo of Torrance introduced Darlene into the opportunities for community service provided by the USO Program. Darlene applied for membership only last Spring and was accepted as an active member in June, the month in which the first USO Doll was awarded to Miss Penny Jean Costa of Torrance.

Darlene is employed six days a week in Whittier, but still manages to fulfill all her responsibilities to her community and the adjacent military installations through serving as a USO Junior Volunteer.

THE YOUNG AMERICANS

Directed by MILTON ANDERSON

An hour-long treat for your family! The "Young Americans," organized in 1962, have already claimed the hearts of choral music lovers across the nation. These 36 handsome boys and girls, ranging in age from 15 to 20, recently charmed viewers of the nationwide Bing Crosby show and will be heard shortly on "The Palace"—an American Broadcasting Company production which will
