an for a wife not a pal. What is your advice?—NOT DEAD YET

Dear Not Yet: Date other women. This may encourage Dolly to retool her thinking. After six months if Dolly still wants to be your pal, give her a Methodist handshake and find a woman who is interested in marriage.

Dear Ann: My cousin and I went all through school together and have been lifelong friends. We've had crushes on the same fellows, and were competitors in debate and oratory.

Recently she has made some cutting remarks. I was shocked last evening when she told a number of people in my presence that in our younger days my mother was such a poor housekeeper I used to ask my dates to pick me up at her house. The truth is that when our home was being remodeled I did this once.

Today I called her and asked why she said such a thing and she replied, "You're too sensitive. Everyone exaggerates a little to make a point. You have no sense of humor." I'd like your opinion. —NOT LAUGHING

Dear Not Laughing: People who make cutting remarks and then criticize your sense of humor are destructive and they don't deserve to be counted as friends.

Tell your cousin your sense of humor is just fine which is more than can be said of her integrity. And next time don't wait till the next day. Nall her on the spot.

Ford Wins Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

January 8: Motor Trend magazine's "Car of the Year" Award goes to an engineering breakthrough! It honors all the '64s from Ford "For engineering advancement in the concept of Total Performance, proven in open competition."

Thunderbird, Falcon, Super Torque Ford, Fairlane (reading counter-clockwise); winners of Motor Trend's "Car of the Year" Award

Here's what the Motor Trend Award means to you...

The editors of Motor Trend, America's largest general automotive magazine, watched Ford's total performance in open competition... saw competition-modified Fords win every 500-mile stock car race in the last year, saw Ford-built engines end an era at Indianapolis and sweep the sports car circuits.

Then they drove the 1964 Fords, Falcons, Fairlanes and Thunderbirds and discovered how the lessons of open competition have helped breed into them a new kind of total performance for the open road, for your kind of driving. And then they made their award!

The "Car of the Year" Award is an impressive testimonial, but see for yourself—take the wheel of a '64 from Ford. These cars speak for themselves with their ease of handling in a supermarket parking lot or their greater stability on a rain-slick blacktop.

Before you buy any new car this year, test-drive total performance in a Solid, Silent Super Torque Ford, now hundreds of pounds more car than anything in its field. Try America's only total performance compact, the Falcon V-6, totally new, totally changed. Or, any of the '64 Cars of the Year from Ford!

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!
