Immanuel Lutheran to Conduct 'Families for Christ' Mission

"Families for Christ," a seven-day program in which the Immanuel Lutheran Church, 706 Knob Hill, Redondo Beach, will participate with other congregations throughout Los Angeles is scheduled to begin Feb. 2 with a mass rally.

A special orientation and training program will be conducted at Immanuel at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. A. W. Schelp, visiting pastor from Corvallis, Ore.

A repeat of the preaching-teaching-reaching mission conducted by Lutheran churches of Southern California 5 years ago, the program is a cooperative endeavor to reach friends, visitors and prospective members of the congregation through actual visitation of homes; provision of food for visitors, providing child care, and furnishing transportation.

UNDER THE direction of Herb Schulz of Torrance, some 25 teams will gather at the church each evening Feb. 3 through 6, at 6 p.m., for dinner which will be served by congregation members under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mathes.

During the dinner hour, the visitation teams will be briefed by the Rev. Schelp and the Rev. A. L. T. Schuetz, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran.

Teams will call upon prospective members following dinner and return to the church for an 8 p.m. service in which the guest pastor will keynote a study of the book of St. John.

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these special services, according to W. A. Kamrath, chairman of the "Families for Christ" project.

Committee chairman are: Mrs. Thomas Rupert of Torrance, publicity; Norbert Baner of Redondo Beach, prayer; LaVerne Hanstadt of Redondo Beach, youth activities; and Bill McMullen of Torrance transportation.
